

Visiting Lecturer Relates Background

BY TROY MARTIN

Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre this week said he does not remember whether he signed documents asking for amnesty for 11 American communist leaders convicted under the Smith Act.

"The truth is I don't remember," Dr. Ferre declared. "I'm rather sure I didn't."

"Some top people who were not communists signed it," he went on. "Of course there were some communists who signed it."

"It was a question of conviction as to freedom of speech and freedom of thought."

Dr. Ferre is here as principal speaker for religious emphasis week which is in progress at West Texas State University.

Dr. Ferre, whose theology and politics both have been under fire, said he felt and feels strongly about the Smith Act. He said he felt the statute to be an infringement on the right to think and speak.

The 11 top communists were convicted in the court of Judge Harold Medina, a jurist of Latin-American descent, in the fall of 1949.

The jury, the foreman of which was a Negro housewife, upheld these government charges against the Communist Party in finding the 11 guilty:

Members of the J. M. Willson family attended the opening lecture of religious emphasis week at West Texas State University. Seated are Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre, the speaker; and Mrs.

J. M. Willson & Floydada. Standing are Dr. James P. Cornette, president of WT; and David Willson. The lecture series is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willson.

1. That it was a criminal conspiracy.
2. That it advocated violent overthrow of the US Government.
3. That it took its orders from Moscow.

The conviction subsequently was upheld by the Supreme Court in a narrowly (5-4) split decision.

Six items appear after Ferre's name in "6000 Educators," a publication distributed by Circuit Riders of Cincinnati, Ohio. The publication has a reputation here of being of an extreme rightwing origin.

Three items listed are dated early in 1953 and have to do with the amnesty appeal.

Item number 6 is listed as National Committee to Win Amnesty for Smith Act Victims--appealed for amnesty--leaflet, May 22, 1953.

This item also appears on a list compiled from memorandums of the Attorney General dated April 29, July 15, September 28, 1953, January 22, 1954, April 4, September 21, and October 20, 1955. The list was consolidated November 1, 1955.

The list on which the National Committee to Win Amnesty for Smith Act Victims appears was published in 1960 in a US Government Printing Office booklet entitled "The Technique of Soviet Propaganda." The booklet dealt in main with work of the subcommittee to investigate the administration of the internal security act and other internal security laws. The group was a subcommittee of the Committee on the Judiciary, United States Senate, Eighty-Sixth Congress, second session.

The other three items are pacifist in nature. Dr. Ferre readily declares himself a pacifist.

The three items include:

1. Church Peace Mission--signer of a statement on nuclear weapons tests--press release, December 2, 1957.

2. Church Peace Mission statement calling for cancellation of nuclear tests--signer--press release, April 21, 1958.

3. Fellowship of Reconciliation--member of advisory council--letterhead, January 1958.

Dr. Ferre said he doesn't remember whether the petitions to ban nuclear tests called for international inspection. (Stated US foreign policy for more than a decade has called for a ban on nuclear tests with adequate international inspection.)

Dr. Ferre said that fundamentally the pleas of the group were that the bomb be banned before it destroys the world. "It was just an endeavor to face the world we live in," Dr. Ferre declared.

He said that if something had not been done people would have been born with leukemia and other diseases caused by excessive radiation. He said parents of the world should not find it necessary to live with this fear.

He pointed to the nuclear test ban treaty between Russia and the US as proof of correctness of the stand taken by "ban the bomb" groups.

Dr. Ferre was asked if he thought the US should proceed unilaterally to ban all nuclear testing.

"We should take the initiative," he declared.

Dr. Ferre said his connection with the Fellowship of Reconciliation was restricted to an advisory capacity.

On the other side of the ledger, here is the text of a letter from the House Un-American Activities Committee to Representative Walter Rogers. The letter was released for publication by Dr. James P. Cornette, who invited Dr. Ferre to speak here.

Text of the letter follows: "The public files, records and publications of this committee have been searched, in response to your letter of March 2, and no record has been found on Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre.

"While the Cumulative Index to Publications to the committee lists one reference to his name, an examination of the text of the publication in which his name appears does not show him to have been connected with any cited organization or publication."

The letter was signed Francis J. McNamara, director. Son of a Baptist preacher, Dr. Ferre was born in Sweden in 1908. He came to this country at the age of 13 to pursue his education because public schools in his native land only went as far as the sixth grade.

His parents were without means to send him to private school in Sweden so as a lad he made the crossing alone. An older brother already was in this country.

Young Ferre knew some tough times as a lonely emigrant in America.

Much of his attitude toward economics seems to have been shaped in those formative years. He tells of doing farm work, menial tasks and even spreading manure on farmland to earn a living and tuition for the school for which he hungers.

The people were not always kindly. Dr. Ferre vividly remembers (See VISITING, Page 7)

Full House For Ferre

Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre spoke to a full house Tuesday morning.

It was the opening lecture for religious emphasis week at West Texas State University. The university administration building auditorium was packed with a standing room only crowd.

Seven police officers stood just outside in the hall. Inside Dr. Ferre spoke on "The Rebirth of God."

Outside several more police officers patrolled the campus. University officials requested the officers when rumors circulated that Dr. Ferre's talks might be picketed. No pickets showed up.

Tuesday night Dr. Ferre and Dr. Cornette were hanged in effigy on the north fence of Buffalo Stadium. An anonymous caller alerted news media.

The caller identified himself only as a member of "West Texas State University Students For Action Committee." Each effigy bore an uncomplimentary inscription.

With one of the dummies was a letter addressed to news media.

"We are a group of students attending WTSU who must remain anonymous," the letter said, "not because it is our desire rather because of the damage the liberal element in our school could do to our college educations."

The note said the effigy hangings were done in protest of the appearance of Dr. Ferre as religious emphasis week speaker.

Dr. James P. Cornette had this to say about the hanging in effigy.

"I am astonished, but personally somewhat complimented, to find that a university president could be hanged in effigy for defending the right of

Fast Stop For Crew

BY RANDY RUTHERFORD

"I've never stopped so quick in my life."

This was the statement of R. L. Skaggs, conductor of the Santa Fe freight which derailed just west of Canyon early Tuesday morning.

"It was a jolt like jumping out of a tree, and there was absolutely no warning."

According to Skaggs, who has been a trainman for 19 years, he and brakeman H. G. Lockhart were not totally unprepared for trouble as they rode in the caboose behind the 161-car train.

"When you're riding behind a real long train, you're never relaxed," says Skaggs, whose home is in Amarillo. "With that many cars you always have a lot of slack and jarring, so you brace yourself along the whole ride."

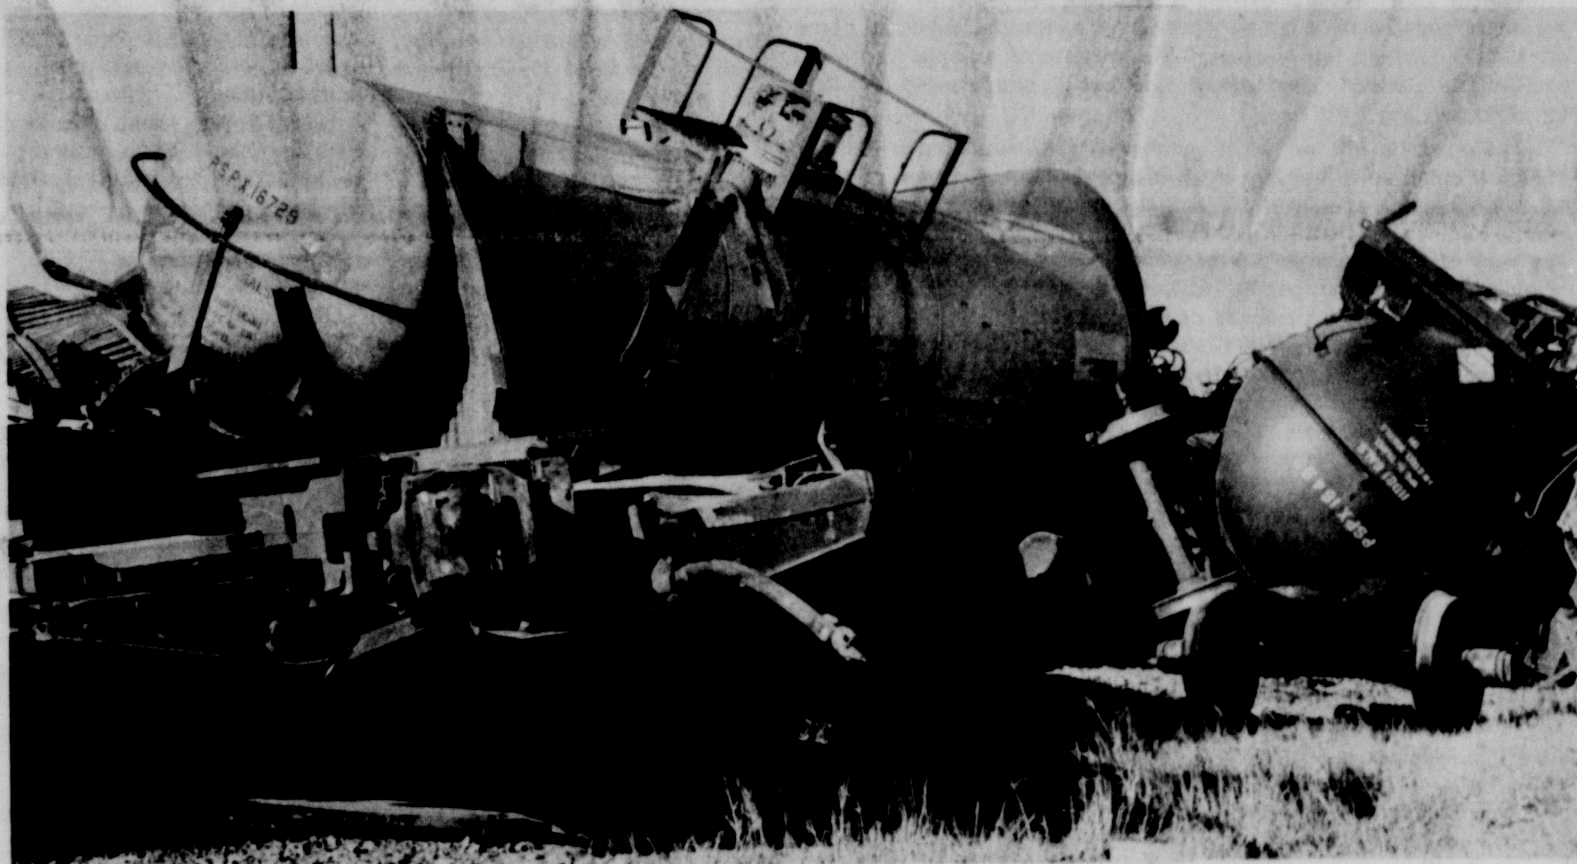

But even riding partly braced was very little preparation for the shock of the derailment.

"We just grabbed ahold and froze. The impact threw us out of our seats and onto our feet. Then we fell back into the seats and just held on. The caboose was a shambles. Chairs, the coffee pot and about everything else was flying from one end of the car to the other and back again. We didn't know what was happening."

As soon as the back cars finally came to a halt, Skaggs and the brakeman climbed down to see what had happened.

"I tell you, we felt mighty lucky to be able to walk around and look. If the derailment had been another 40 cars back, we sure wouldn't have been able to," he said. "We didn't have"

Leaking liquid petroleum gas from this tank caused concern for Canyon folks Tuesday after the tank was ruptured in a 40-car pile-up on the Santa Fe Railroad. The accident occurred at 4 a.m. Tuesday and 40 cars were derailed at the Fourth Street crossing. No one was injured in the accident when the middle cars of the 161-car eastbound Santa Fe freight train jumped the track. A broken axle is believed to have caused the derailment. Canyon volunteer firemen were called to the scene to spray foam on the three leaking gas tanks in an effort to prevent a possible fire or explosion.

Happy Lassies Third In State Cage Tilts

BY MARGO WILLIAMS

A victory bell clanging and towns folks cheering were only part of the reception awaiting the Happy Cowgirls Sunday as they returned from Austin.

The team and their coach Bill Tennison, did an excellent job representing their small community and school, and the people of Happy were eager to tell them about it.

Entering the regional playoffs in Canyon two weeks ago, the small group of girls and their tall, quiet coach, unexpectedly routed past three tough teams to represent the Class B schools in this area in the state finals.

Once in Austin, the under-rated Cowgirls again faced stiff competition in their battle attempt to the first state championship of the school's history.

But they were stopped in the second game Friday morning in their try for the number one spot. This did not dampen the spirits of the Happy cagers as they came back Saturday morning to face Rock Springs for third place honors.

And the Cowgirls came out the decided victors. With determination and excellent ball-handling skill, the Happy team walked away with third place among 461 girls teams in the Class B division of the state of Texas.

In the first game in Austin Thursday night, the Cowgirls faced tough Leuders in the first bracket tilt. From an early 15-3 lead the Happy cagers dropped to a 23-18 edge at half time.

The unrelenting tilt began to look doubtful for the Cowgirls as Leuders took advantage of fouling penalties against Happy.

Alice Womack, starting guard for Happy standing 5-3, fouled her fourth foul before the end of the second period and was benched by coach Tennison for the remainder of the game. Martha Toles, 5-8, was shifted from forward to guard and Willa

Board Okays Textbooks For Classes

Textbooks for the 1964-65 school year were approved by the Canyon school board Tuesday night at the regular meeting.

The school board members adopted the approved list of books covering 27 areas. A textbook committee consisting of 15 teachers, the principals and the superintendent presented the list to the board.

Board members also approved the faculty for all schools. Six vacancies have been listed for next year, four in the elementary school and two in high school.

Other vacancies may come up later in the year, but the six were known because of resignations or retirement.

"There will probably be some shifting in the teaching situation later on, but at this time we have six vacancies," Huey Laycock, superintendent said.

A called meeting of the board has been set for Monday night, March 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school.

Dr. Berlie Fallon of Texas Tech will present the final report to the board on the evaluation of the Canyon schools.

The report will be in greater detail and Fallon will explain the various areas which could use improvement in the school.

Damage Costs High, Gas Threatens Town

A fast moving freight train piled up in Canyon early Tuesday morning.

Box cars and loaded tankers were tossed topsy turvy along the right of way. Butane tankers endangered the city for more than 24 hours.

Ten families were evacuated from the area.

Santa Fe officials still were totalling up the damage at press time Wednesday. Damage is expected to run in the vicinity of $1,000,000.

There was no loss of life or injury.

The Super Chief had sped over the track just an hour before the 40-car pile up.

The wreck took place about 4 o'clock in the morning.

A gas expert from Phillips Petroleum Company was dispatched to the wreck scene located just inside the west city limits of Canyon. Three of the entangled tankers were leaking liquid petroleum gas.

A broken axle on an empty freight car is believed to have caused the shattering wreck which stacked cars 30 feet high.

The families were evacuated just minutes after Canyon volunteer firemen discovered the gas leakage from the tanks.

Gas, electricity and water to the western end of the city were cut off during operations Tuesday, but water was restored late Tuesday afternoon. Gas and electricity were expected to be turned on Wednesday.

Evacuated families stayed with friends and in local motels Tuesday night. Santa Fe paid

Senator Visits Canyon Backers

BY MARCO WILLIAMS

U.S. Senator Ralph Yarbro emphasized the need for more educational facilities Saturday during a brief visit to Canyon.

Speaking to a group of more than 50 persons, Yarbro pointed out various bills which have been passed by Congress to aid the education program in the United States.

The U.S. Senator who is seeking reelection blasted big business for not supporting higher education in this country and noted that the national Chamber of Commerce had fought higher education.

"I asked to serve on the education subcommittee because I felt we have a definite need to improve our educational facilities. It is not an easy committee to work on. People say the education committee is a 'grave yard' committee because it is difficult to get things done,

"Big business does not support higher education. Chamber of Commerce has fought the development of higher education. We must improve our schools, and the federal government is needed to do so," Yarbro said.

He continued by pointing out that only 60 percent of Texas students graduating from the eighth grade ever graduate from high school. In California 87 percent of the eighth grade graduates continue through high school and in Illinois 84 percent complete high school.

"We are losing 25 percent of our students because we are not giving them the means and the chance to graduate from high school. But I am the co-author of a bill which gives 17,000 fellowships and scholarships to students. These are grants, not loans," Yarbro said. (See SENATOR, Page 7)

License Sales Slow

In an effort to facilitate the sale of car license tags, the Randall County tax office will open three sub-stations in South Amarillo next week.

Vehicle registration stations will be in operation at Furr Food Store No. 2 at 4021 Washington and No. 3 at 3412 Georgia and at Safeway Store No. 519 at 4113 W. 34th. The stations will be open March 27, 28, 30 and 31.

Bill Money, Randall County tax assessor-collector, said in addition the South Amarillo Annex office will be open all day Saturday this week and again on March 28. The Canyon office in the Court House will be open until noon Saturday, March 28.

Money said as of the first of this week only 6,648 vehicles had been registered in the county. Last year some 23,311 were registered in all.

Money reminded residents that a title and last year's license receipt are necessary for purchasing this year's tags. Deadline for registration is midnight, March 31.

Sunrise Services March 29

Annual Easter Sunrise Services will be held at 6 a.m. Sunday, March 29, in the Amphitheater of Palo Duro Canyon under the sponsorship of the Canyon Christian Youth Council.

Principal speaker for the service will be the Rev. Jack Boyett, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church.

Others on the program include William Moore of the Presbyterian Church, scripture; Nancy Davis of the First Methodist Church, prayer; Lil Covert of the Presbyterian Church, a poem; Bud Lovell of the First Baptist Church, song director; Rob Barnard of the Youth Council, call to worship, and Mary Ann Wheelock of the First Baptist Church, organist.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

For the past three weeks we have devoted a great deal of our time to study of Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre.

This week we spent three hours talking to him. We have told you as much about him as time and space would permit. We have portrayed some of the good and some of what we and others think is the bad of Dr. Nels Ferre.

If you read last week's Canyon News and will read the front page article on Dr. Ferre this week you will have a fair idea of what others think of Dr. Ferre and of what Dr. Ferre says he thinks of himself.

We permitted Dr. Ferre a pre-publication reading of this week's article on him. This is something we allow only in very special cases.

"It is a very fair story," was Dr. Ferre's comment.

You--our readers--are in possession of about as much information on Dr. Ferre as we are at this time. We leave it to you to make your own estimate of the man.

We wish that everyone would go back a few years and read Judge Harold Medina's charge to the jury in the case of the communist eleven.

We recommend it to Dr. Ferre, who says he feels that the Smith Act under which the Reds were convicted, is an infringement on freedom of thought and speech.

The entire case of the communist eleven is testimony vindicating this country's right to protect itself against the communist conspiracy. We think that information brought to light in the case makes it quite clear that the Communist Party USA is not just a political party. It is a conspiracy to overthrow this nation's government by violence.

In his book, "Masters of Deceit," FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover pulls no punches in discussing Communist Party fronts.

Says Hoover in his chapter on the Communist Front:

"The Party has operated hundreds of major fronts in practically every field of Party agitation: 'peace', civil rights, protection of the foreign-born, support for Smith Act 'victims,' abolition of H-bomb tests, exploitation of nationality and minority groups. Some are based on specific appeal, to teachers, writers, lawyers, labor, women, youth. Many have national officers, local chapters and substantial assets."

An organization used as a tool of the Party may have as members many highly respected people who would not knowingly do anything to hurt their country. Because of their positions these people can be of more use to the Party than if they had given themselves wholeheartedly to Moscow.

We make a plea that people of position be very careful to what high sounding organizations they lend their names and prestige.

We can take no pride in the distribution of unsigned circulars here or in effigy hangings. A statement in an unsigned letter left at the effigy hanging scene Tuesday night, purportedly by WT students, that the people who did the hanging were afraid of repercussions at school is not valid.

A man who takes a stand should expect repercussions. If he is willing to take a stand he should be willing to take the consequences and a stand doesn't mean much unless it is taken in public.

We've always admired John Hancock who signed the Declaration of Independence--a capital offense--in boxcar letters with this comment: "Old George won't have to put on his glasses to read this!"

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Foster were on a week end trip to the Dallas area recently.

The Fosters were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Frank L. Stallings, Jr., and family in Arlington and also visited with their son, Manus R. Foster, and family in Irving.

Hilltop Views

With apologies for the personal element in this column today I must tell you about a recent trip to Ft. Worth and environs that my daughter, Marion (Mrs. Lemoire Hill of Borger) and I made a few days ago. While our mission had a business objective, we did not overlook a few friends and relatives along the way.

For example, at Wichita Falls we spent a few hours in the home of Dr. and Mrs. William E. Wright, shepherds of the First Christian Church in that thriving city. An able and well-known minister Dr. Wright had just completed one of the best church plants I have ever seen. It is located just across the street from Midwestern University which is itself a rapidly expanding institution with some 2500 students and a beautiful physical plant. Dr. Wright is proud of his church's opportunity to serve university students; and I am proud that in his weekly church bulletin he prints each week a quotation from my booklet, "I Hold The Key."

Down at Ft. Worth Marion has a son who is a sophomore in Texas Christian University. To his "grandpa" he is just about as fine a chap as can be found and we greatly enjoyed a few hours with him. Presently he has eyes on an M.D. degree. Incidentally, you may not know that TCU is the largest denominational University in Texas and is starting a campaign for $50,000,000 with which to enlarge and improve during the next ten years. Its enrollment now is close to 10,000.

On Sunday we visited my granddaughter Jo Ann Hill Chapman and her husband Joe Chapman and son Greg, at the little town of Ferris a few miles south of Dallas. Jo Ann is city secretary there. I call her Mayor. She says she might as well be since she does all the work. Her husband is a contractor and builder and Greg is a budding historian with special interest in the Civil War. No telling; that chap may be "making history" some day. It's a funny thing--Marion's son Bill has been bitten by the same bug and he knows more Texas History at eleven years of age than I do. Maybe that isn't too complimentary after all, but to me it seems quite unusual.

On Monday we went out to Denton where two fine universities grind out Ph.D.s and manufacture teachers by the thousands. There two institutions are so large one can't see all the outside of them, to say nothing of the insides. At North Texas State we had considerable trouble finding the entrance, but finally reached the office of Dr. J. C. Matthews, President whom I had known in the dim past--a learned, hospitable, and able administrator. When we had about worn him out he called in Coach Odus Mitchell, one of our own athletic heroes way back when. Also he sent for Dr. Frank Nelson, who though not akin to me, learned to call me "Uncle Joe" years ago. These two gallants escorted Marion and me to lunch at Marquis Hall a dormitory for girls. It got its name from R. L. Marquis, a member of the first faculty of West Texas State who ascended to the Denton presidency about 1923.

As an illustration of how quickly prominent people pass out of the picture Dr. Marquis, after serving North Texas State eleven years as President and becoming a beloved educational figure in all parts of Texas, died in 1934, leaving two sons, Robert and Richard. The former has for years been a Professor at North Texas State and Richard for a like period a Professor at Arlington State. Yet the young woman who registers guests at Marquis Hall did not know for whom her dormitory was named.

In addition to the above experience at Denton we had a delightful visit with two young students from Borger who grew up with Marion's son John. Also we spent an hour in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hobson. Mr. Hobson is a nephew of Mrs. Hill and is retired manager of the Fort Worth division of Acme Brick Company.

Believe it or not we were prevented from visiting friends at Texas Woman's University by a rampaging snow storm. I mean it. For 3 hours around 12 o'clock the wet three inch snow fell so fast it was almost blinding. By contrast the day I arrived home was one of those weather-wise perfect days--cloudless, bright, crisp days that few people elsewhere ever have. I fell sorry for our weather beaten friends down state!!!

Monday night while Marion visited with her son Davis I was a guest in the lovely home of Hollis and Blanche Childress. The former is a retired business man, who was one of the founders of Worth Food Market, a 20 store grocery chain. Wish I had space to tell this typical success story. When he was a student in West Texas State in the beginning days of this institution he had to rustle for food and raiment. When he and two associates sold Worth Food Market some few years ago the price was about $3,000,000. Blanche is a Cleburne girl who was a student under our own Miss Darthula Walker and Miss Edna Graham and who remembers both most kindly.

The Childresses have a lovely home on West Seventh overlooking one of Ft. Worth's best parks. In that home is a beautiful bed room which they call Hill Hotel. We reminisced and philosophized that night into the wee small hours, not overlooking their happy offspring in New York.

Red Cross Committee To Meet

An executive meeting of the Randall County chapter of the Red Cross will be held today (Thursday) at the Trail Motor Hotel.

Jerry LaGrone, county chairman, scheduled the meeting for noon today and plans for the annual Red Cross fund drive will be discussed.

Members of the executive committee are asked to attend the meeting.

After spending a full day with Canyon's volunteer firemen at the wreck scene of the Santa Fe freight train, one comes away with a better understanding of the individuals draped in the long black coats and white hats.

These men are on call 24 hours a day ready to protect the lives and property of Canyon folks. They get little pay, and most of what they earn as a fireman goes back into the department cash box for more equipment.

Tuesday began at 4 a.m. for Joe Rice, Arthur Plain, Jack Jennings, Jim Christopher, Spike Lowes, Jack Haley and most of the regular firemen.

They were called to the scene of the accident and they answered in a hurry. Most of them had pulled on their white fireman coveralls over their sleeping garments, grabbed a pair of wool socks and ran for the door.

They arrived at Fourth Street expecting to see a "minor train wreck" and suddenly they realized aside from coping with 40 cars piled on top of each other, liquid petroleum gas was escaping from three overturned gas tanks.

Tuesday morning was cold, and the firemen knew it would be a long day. Quickly they organized a group to evacuate the immediate area and another group started working to lessen the danger of fire or explosion from not only the leaking gas but also from leaking anhydrous ammonia. An ammonia tank near the crossing had been struck by a derailed car and fumes were filling the area.

Foam was sprayed on the three tanks with the leaking gas and also on wreckage near by, with the hope of lessening the fire possibility.

And then waiting. Canyon firemen were on hand with their hoses Tuesday afternoon when the first of the three gas tanks was upright. Construction work ceased at sundown Tuesday, but the firemen's jobs were not finished. The immediate area was roped off and a unit was left at the scene to continue spraying foam on the leaking tanks...anything to lessen the danger of a gas explosion.

By Wednesday morning reliefs had switched and re-switched and each fireman had had his turn with the hose.

Clyde Alsop Top Boss For March

Clyde Alsop of Canyon was named 'Boss of the Month' by the Insurance Women's Club of Amarillo at their regular meeting on Tuesday evening of this week.

Mrs. Alsop was introduced on the program by Jeanne Loudder of Canyon, president of the club, at the supper meeting at Wyatt's Cafeteria in Amarillo.

Each secretary or member of the Insurance Women's group has a boss eligible for the recognition. Canyon women who are members of the club are Jeanne Loudder, Mrs. Paul Mann and Mrs. Joe Hawkins.

200 Attend Annual Canyon Jaycee Installation Banquet

Richard Pruett was installed for his second term as president of the Canyon Junior Chamber of Commerce last Saturday night at the annual banquet festivities of the local Jaycee organization.

Bill Rogers, state director of Region I-A, conducted the installation ceremonies at the western style banquet which was held in the cafeteria of Canyon High School.

Other officers installed on the program were Nick Dodson, first vice president; Odell LaGrone, second vice president; Allen Parsons, treasurer; Roy Fortune, secretary; Charles Marshall, inter-club director; and Jaycee directors, Doug Rittenberry, Jackie Whitley and Jim Allison.

Awards presented during the program went to Charles Marshall, as outstanding Jaycee of the year; Allen Parsons, key man; Bob Wilkinson, committee chairman of the year; Roy Fortune, outstanding new Jaycee member; and outstanding committee of the year was the extension of the Happy Jaycee chapter. Charles Marshall, chairman, received the certificate for committee members.

Certificates of merit were awarded to Richard Pruett, Odell LaGrone, Nick Dodson, Doug Rittenberry and Jackie Whitley for their active participation and outstanding leadership in the Jaycee chapter.

Bob Wilkins served as master of ceremonies for the program which followed a buffet style supper of barbecued beef potato salad, brown ranch beans, relishes, ice cream, and tea or coffee.

Over 200 local Jaycees, guests, and out of town delegations were in attendance at the affair. Other Jaycee delegations represented at the banquet were from Amarillo, Borger, Clarendon, Happy, Pampa, Plainview, Vega, Tulia, Dumas and out of district delegations from Lubbock and Muleshoe. Representatives of the Kiwanis and Lions Clubs of Canyon were recognized along with four Jaycee state directors-elect including Lonnie Crow of Plainview, Chancy Hombel of Clarendon, Gerald Adams of Tulia and Calvin Hornsby of Dumas.

Roy Fortune gave the invocation and Jim Allison led the group in the Jaycee Creed prior to the installation and awards ceremony.

The president's report was given by Richard Pruett as he discussed the growth of the Canyon Jaycee's and gave an outline of projects and activities that the civic club participated in. From a membership of 14 in 1963, the Jaycees have increased to 44 in 1964 and during the past year were active in 31 projects.

Among projects the club sponsored or helped with during the closing year were a Fish Rodeo for youngsters; a scholarship to a student of Canyon High School; a Radio Day; Pancake Day at the Old Settler's Reunion; a Labor Day rest stop for travellers; a Quarter-Horse Show and Junior Horse Show; extension of the Happy Jaycee chapter; a poll tax booth; bundles and hay for Boy's Ranch; a joint orientation workshop with Amarillo and Tulia Jaycees; the Christmas lighting contest; Santa House for youngsters; a caroling party and help with the Jaycee-ette's nativity scene; assistance to the Circle K Club for needy food baskets at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

"One of our largest money making projects is the distribution of flags to businesses during holidays," said Pruett in his summary of the club. He stated that out of about 150 local businesses 112 were on contract with the club for the flags.

Pruett extended thanks from the club to Ricky Michael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meade Michael, for artwork used in decorating the banquet room. The Canyon Jaycee-ettes under the leadership of Mrs. Rex Griffin, chairman, decorated the banquet tables with red and white print tablecloths, centerpieces depicting the western scene with cowboys standing amid cacti and barbed wire fences, and used old fashioned coal oil lanterns for lighting. The head table was centered with a black wrought iron pot filled with artificial wild flowers and flanked by miniature hurricane lanterns. An entry scene depicted a cowboy dressed in boots and chaps sitting by a mock campfire waiting for his branding irons to get hot.

Following the banquet and program, a majority of the guests adjourned to the National Guard Armory for a western stomp with music furnished by the Nitrons, a local musical combo.

Mrs. Crister Crain, left, and Mrs. Mary Bonnie, president of the board for the Randall County Library committee, look over a selection of library books. Mrs. Crain was recently appointed to serve on the library board as the county representative along with numerous representatives from local Women's clubs and the city.

Mrs. Crain To Board

Mrs. Crister Crain was appointed to the county library board this week.

Mrs. Crain was appointed as the county representative to the library board by Wayland Angel, county judge, and the Randall County commissioners. She will fill the position formerly held by the late Mrs. Walter Graham of Canyon.

The former Miss Betty Hicks, Mrs. Crain moved to Canyon in 1933 with her father, Rev. J. R. Hicks, who was pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canyon. She attended West Texas State College and then taught homemaking at Tell High School in Childress County until marrying Mr. Crain in 1937.

The Crains have two sons, Claiborn 18, a senior at Canyon High School, and Jerry 13, a seventh grade student. An active member of the Pleasantview Home Demonstration Club and the American Association of University Women, Mrs. Crain will serve as county representative on the library board.

Mrs. Mary Bonnie is president of the board for the Randall County library committee. Other committee members include Mrs. J. Murphy White, city representative; Mrs. Ray Campbell and Mrs. W. E. Parker, Woman's Book Club; Mrs. Lorenzo Wirt, Mrs. Burney Slack and Mrs. Levi Cole, Sue Hite Club; Mrs. Truett Hull, Mrs. Troy Martin and Mrs. Nolon Henson, Junior Woman's Book Club; Mrs. Johnnie Raymond, Mrs. Roy Forehand and Mrs. Dick Dawdy, Canyon Study Club.

Worker 4-H Club Meets

A cooking demonstration for girls of the Worker's 4-H Club of Canyon was held recently at the service kitchens of Southwestern Public Service Company in Amarillo.

Mrs. Stella Sherwood, public service counsellor, gave a demonstration on making chocolate midgets, a dessert dish. She also discussed cooking tips, the basic four food groups and planned a menu for the day.

The twelve Canyon girls were then divided into two small groups and prepared Banana Nut Bread. They were divided into smaller groups to prepare individual luncheons.

Attending from the Canyon club were club members Marie and Janet Stork, Robbie Weldert, Charlotte Dietz, Lee Ann Stengel, Jeri Ann Ratliff, Sarah Dorsey, Melinda Black, Sharon Allen, Carolyn Bunn, Annette Robinson and Cindy Williams.

Mrs. R. V. Ratliff and Mrs. Ted Allen were sponsors for the trip to Amarillo.

Mrs. Grimes Buried In Dreamland

Mrs. Cora Grimes, 81, died at her home in Long Beach, California last Friday.

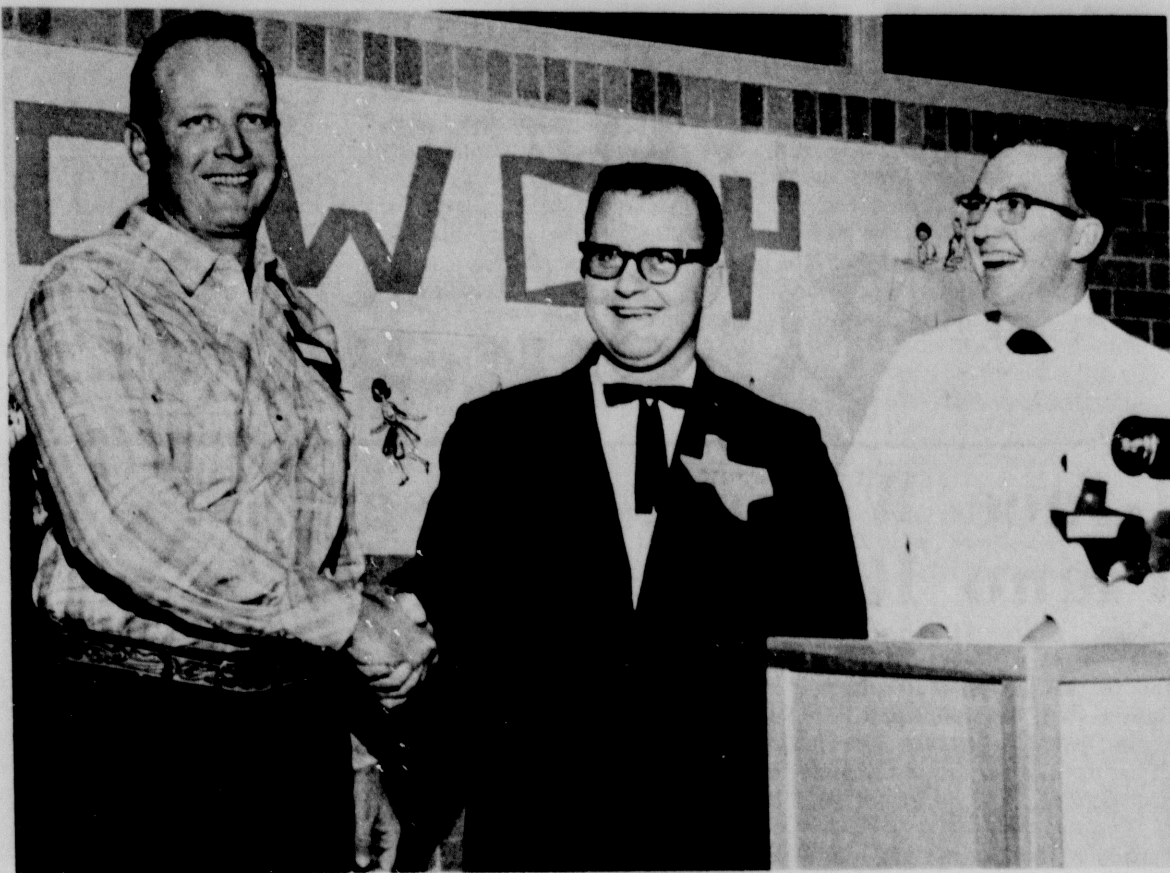

Mrs. Grimes, a former resident of Amarillo until three months ago, was buried Wednesday afternoon at Dreamland Cemetery south of Canyon.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at an Amarillo funeral chapel with Rev. E. R. Foster, pastor of the First Assembly of God Church of Amarillo, officiating.

Born Feb. 28, 1883 in Texas, Mrs. Grimes was a member of the Assembly of God Church.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Mattie Pruttsman of Los Angeles and Mrs. Velma Buehrle of Long Beach, California; two sons, R. E. of Amarillo and J. B. of Long Beach, Calif.; five brothers, Estel Wall of Canon City, Colorado, Tom Wall of Ropesville, Roy Wall of Plainview, Ace Wall of Downey, California and Cape Wall of Sweetwater, Idaho; 11 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

Chamber Of Commerce Corner

In analyzing our community, it is hard to find a weakness; and if we have a weakness, it is so weak that it would be hard to prove. The main trouble that I find is that a few want to criticize rather than praise it. We have just started to be a city and its foundation is so strong that nothing is needed but salesmanship from its citizens to make it the best town to live in and make a living. The main factors which contribute to the analysis of any community are: ECONOMIC GROWTH & STABILITY, LIVING CONDITIONS, TRAFFIC CONGESTION & PARKING, BLIGHT & OBSCULESCENCE AND CRISIS IN MUNICIPAL FINANCE.

No. 1: THE ECONOMIC GROWTH AND STABILITY of Canyon and Randall County is proven by its growth during the past ten years. This growth is solid growth and its stability is also proven by its unemployment rate, average income per person, retail sales and the wealth in effective buying income of the metropolitan area of which we are a part. The location of industry in this area will make it more productive each year and Canyon will receive extra payroll and additional opportunities each year. The labor market is improving as we continue to grow.

No. 2: THE LIVING CONDITIONS of our community are among the highest of any town in Texas. We have the highest percentage of married couples owning their own households. We are the recreational area for the Southwest Great Plains area and no other town this size can compare to the facilities which are furnished such as: University, public schools, churches, city park, Palo Duro Canyon, Buffalo Lake and Panhandle Plain Historical Museum. Both rural and urban people have greatly benefitted from the fact our university and public schools of such excellence are located here. We have the highest educational standing of any county in Texas with the highest average of school years completed of persons over 25 yrs. of age. Excellent churches of all denominations are represented here. A fine accredited hospital with 30 beds, and rest home is now nearing completion. Yes, we are an attractive city and no one suffers from living conditions here. Let's start bragging about it.

No. 3: TRAFFIC CONGESTION & PARKING is a problem in some communities but each year our community has coped with these problems and will continue to make them better as we grow. The small number of accidents, personal injuries, arrests and total miles of paving prove our excellence along these lines. No need has arisen for parking meters. The city has a yearly program set up for the maintenance of its streets and gradually with co-operation from its citizens can start widening and change others designed for horse and buggy traffic.

No. 4: BLIGHT AND OBSCULESCENCE usually exists in some communities; but not in Canyon. The health, fire and crime records will prove this community to be among the best or the best of any town anywhere. We have the highest average of persons 14 to 17 age enrolled in school; which will prove that we have little juvenile delinquency troubles. We really have a clean town with no slum areas. Not very many towns can say this.

No. 5: CRISIS IN MUNICIPAL FINANCE or the last of the five factors contributing to making an analysis of any community. We have had crisis of this nature in our city government but it now has a sound financial picture with an excellent water supply which will insure its growth and make itself attractive to other bond issues which may become necessary where private enterprise can not provide. The county has the lowest tax rate and is in the best financial picture of any county in Texas. The public schools have a wonderful plant and possibly will be building another school to take care of the needs as they arise in our county.

We have a COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE and it will be working to correct what weakness they can find, and will be working out a plan for future growth and head off problems that may arise. The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors is the planning commission for the City of Canyon and will work hand in hand with the city commission and the city manager.

We have just finished a great week and committees are meeting and devoting their time to make our community better. Let's all start selling our town and county and University wherever you go and everyone you talk to. Let's get some results of the fine work your chamber of commerce has started for this year. If you are a member--how about doubling your dues. If you are not a member, we would like to have you join. Let's all get interested in our community and invest in the community that you live in and make a living.

I will close with this thought: POLITICIANS WANT A WORKING MAJORITY. BUSINESS MEN WANT A MAJORITY WORKING.

Mrs. J.R. Davis Club Hostess

The Canyon Mother-in-Law Club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Roy Davis for their regular monthly program.

Mrs. T. T. Fain gave a reading of the club minutes and roll call. Members voted to donate a quilt and $5.00 to the Larry Berry family to replace their loss of personal belongings from the fire which destroyed the Berry home last week.

The devotional was presented by Mrs. C. W. Hudson with a prayer by Mrs. W. S. Wharton.

Mrs. C. W. Dunn served as program chairman for the afternoon meeting which included a reading of "Over The Hill to the Poorhouse" by Mrs. Laura Duckworth; a reading of "Tall Trees" by Mrs. G. W. Rose; "The Shape I'm In", a reading, by Mrs. Roy Davis; and a report by Mrs. Hattie Brasuel on her recent trip to California.

Refreshments of cake, coffee, and jello were served to 17 club members and one guest. The next regular meeting will be April 9th with the hostess committee being Mrs. G. W. Rose, Mrs. Lewis Harvey, Mrs. W. S. Wharton and Mrs. E. C. Hawz.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO Women

Grace Williams Presents Piano Recital March 22

Miss Grace Williams, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Williams and the late Edgar Williams of Canyon, will be presented in her senior piano recital on March 22 in the auditorium of Canyon High School.

Miss Williams, who has been a student in the Canyon public schools since first grade is a piano pupil of Mrs. Herman Demus. Her recital program, which begins at 3 p.m., will consist of representative works of several periods of piano literature including musical numbers of Bach, Mozart, Chopin, and Bartok.

In the annual West Texas State University music festival, Miss Williams has won four consecutive sweepstakes ratings in the four years she has competed. The sweepstakes rating consists of a first division or superior rating in both solo playing and sightreading. The music festival rating Miss Williams received this year will entitle her to attend West Texas State University as a scholarship student with a major in piano.

Miss Williams is active in church and school activities. She has played clarinet in the Canyon school bands since the fifth grade and is currently second vice president of the high school band.

A senior student, Miss Williams is a member of the National Honor Society and last year was the piano accompanist for the all-school musical, "Love From Judy". At present, she is pianist for the Canyon Lion's Club and the First Congregational Methodist Church of Amarillo.

A reception honoring Miss Williams and her guests will be held in the lobby immediately after the recital program. Anyone interested in the program is invited to attend the recital and the reception which follows.

Music Club Meets In Dowlen Home

The Music Club of Happy met in the home of Mrs. Glen Dowlen on March 6 with Mrs. C. D. Taylor, president, conducting the business meeting.

Mrs. Pete Whitlow, program director, was in charge of the program on "Texas Composers". Mrs. Whitlow reviewed the home life and early childhood of David W. Guion, composer, and discussed the effect it had on his composing musical scores.

"Home On the Range", "When The Works All Done This Fall", "Arkansas Traveler" and "Turkey in the Straw" were composed by Guion. Mrs. J. B. McCarley and Mrs. Clovis Vernon played the musical numbers on the afternoon program.

A guest, Mrs. Glen Dowlen Jr. of New York City, played "Remembrance" by Seth on the program. The club sang "Texas Our Texas" during the program.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Embury Finley, Mrs. J. B. McCarley, Mrs. R. W. McNeill, Mrs. C. D. Taylor, Mrs. Clovis Vernon, Mrs. Ernest White, Mrs. Pete Whitlow, Mrs. H. S. Wilkes, Mrs. Glen Dowlen, Jr. and the hostess, Mrs. Glen Dowlen, Sr.

Olive Bugbee Club Speaker

Olive Vanduff Bugbee was the guest speaker at last Friday's meeting of the Junior Woman's Book Club in the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum.

Mrs. Bugbee, wife of the late Harold Bugbee, discussed her late husband's famed western life paintings and spoke on what to look for in getting ideas for painting. Mrs. Bugbee teaches at West Texas State University.

Approximately 20 club members and guests were in attendance for the program and were served refreshments by the club hostesses, Mrs. Bob Brotherton, Mrs. Alfred Daniel and Mrs. Joach Byrd.

Garden Club Program Given By Mrs. Foster

Mrs. Mark Foster presented a program on 'peonies' at last Thursday evening's meeting of the Canyon Garden Club which was held in the home of Mrs. Ed Weeks.

Members answered roll call with My Favorite Bird and heard a reading of the minutes and the treasurer's report by Mrs. D. J. Kievit. Mrs. Joe Frank, president, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. M. S. Downing read the club by-laws and they will be voted on at the next meeting of the club on April 9 at the home of Mrs. Clyde Warwick, 2523 11th Avenue, with Mrs. Rae Walters as co-hostess.

During the business meeting, members discussed the upcoming annual flower show which is sponsored by the club. This year's show will be held on May 3 with the theme being 'Gardening Through The Year'. Mrs. K. E. Hines, planning chairman for the fourth annual flower show, appointed committee members for the flower show.

A St. Patrick's theme was used for the refreshment table. The hostess, Mrs. Weeks, and co-hostess, Mrs. C. W. Samples, served the refreshment course as the meeting was concluded. Club members and guests present included Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Foster, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Goodman, Mr. Ed Weeks, Mrs. Rae Walters, Mrs. D. J. Kievit, Mrs. Mark Foster, Mrs. M. S. Downing, Mrs. Levi Cole, Mrs. Jeannette Robbins, Mrs. Mary Bonnie, Mrs. Alfred Belah, Mrs. E. T. Cummins and the hostesses, Mrs. Weeks and Mrs. Samples.

Mother-In-Law Club Has Meet

The 'club birthday' was celebrated by members of the Palo Duro Mother-in-Law Club at their regular meeting last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Leonard Winters, hostess, giving a historical accounting of the club since it was started.

Co-hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Curt Samples. Refreshments of pie, coffee and candies, featuring at St. Patrick, theme, were served to guests present including Mrs. Estell Rice and Mrs. Lang Hunter.

Club members attending were Mrs. Grace McDougal, Mrs. Gladys Haines, Mrs. Jeannette Robbins, Mrs. Olga Seales, Mrs. Rae Walters, Mrs. Win R. Matsler, Mrs. Curt Samples, Mrs. Fred Marshall, Mrs. M. J. Noel, Mrs. George Barker, Mrs. Leonard Winters, Mrs. H. E. Campfield, Mrs. J. L. Hilgenfeld, and Mrs. J. P. Hammonds.

Former WT Coed Weds

Miss Marilyn Sue Kidd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Kidd of Plainview, and Don Holley, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Holley of Halfway Community were married on March 7 in a ceremony conducted at the First Methodist Church of Plainview.

Officiating at the ceremony was Dr. Marshal Rhew, church pastor. Mrs. Milton Mickey of Lockney was organist and accompanied Mrs. Durwood Hart, soloist.

Miss Cheryl Swayze was the maid of honor. Mrs. Kenneth White was bridesmatron and Miss Brenda Winter and Miss Carol Buchanan were bridesmaids. Flower girls were the Misses Cheri Holley and Roxanna Lynch.

Best man for the ceremony was Kenney McEachern of Lubbock. Groomsman were Garry Blankenship, Kenneth White and Steve Meador of Oklahoma City. Randy Kidd, Jim Buchanan, Lynn Dudley and R. L. Hobbs of Canyon ushered.

Randy Kidd, brother of the bride, and Jim Buchanan lighted the tapers. Darrell Holley was ringbearer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of delustered ivory satin designed with a bateau neckline, long sleeves tapered to petal points and a dome skirt.

A graduate of Plainview High School, the bride formerly attended West Texas State University in Canyon.

The bridegroom, also a Plainview High graduate, has served in the United States Army and is owner of the Big N Fertilizer Co. at Center Plains.

Texas Poet Discussed At Meeting

Mrs. Ray Campbell reviewed the Texas poet, William Burford, and a variety of his poems at a meeting of the Woman's Book Club last Wednesday afternoon.

Presiding at the meeting was Mrs. K. E. Hines, vice president, who will fulfill the unexpired term of Mrs. Emilio Caballero until officer elections are held in May.

The meeting was opened with The Lord's Prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

Mrs. T. B. McCarter discussed the work of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee and the State Civil War Centennial plans at the meeting.

The Top Of Texas District Convention to be held in Borger March 25-26 was discussed at the meeting and the club will send a delegation of members to the convention.

Mrs. Lamb Discusses Fashions

Spring fashions and styles were discussed by Mrs. James Lamb at a meeting of the Highland Home Demonstration Club last Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Roy Lamb.

Following her speech, Mrs. Lamb discussed a special event for the club which has been planned for April 8th when members will have a luncheon at Furr's Cafeteria in Amarillo and later make a visit to a cosmetic demonstration.

Members answered roll call with "My Hobby" and the afternoon program was an open discussion of family recreation enjoyed by each member and family.

A jello dessert, cake slices and coffee were served by the hostess to those present including Mrs. Earl Boydston, Mrs. Leroy Lamb, Mrs. Clarence Howard, Mrs. James Lamb and Mrs. Cathryn Booth.

The next regular meeting will be March 25th at the home of Mrs. John Plank. The program will begin at 2:00 o'clock.

MRS. RUSSELL BRADLEY RYAN

Miss Cox Exchanges Nuptial Vows With Russell B. Ryan

Miss Mary Beth 'Penny' Cox became the bride of Russell Bradley Ryan in an impressive double ring ceremony which was performed in Polk Street Methodist Church chapel on Feb. 29, 1964.

Dr. Jordan Grooms, pastor of the church, officiated at the nuptial rites which united Miss 'Penny' Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cox, in marriage with the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ryan of Kirksville, Missouri.

The candlelight ceremony was performed in the church chapel amid chapel decorations of branched candelabrum and white stock floral arrangements. As the bride ascended the aisle, she presented her mother and Mrs. Ted Boatwright with a single long stemmed white rose as a wedding keepsake. Following the ceremony, she paused to present her mother-in-law with a white rose also.

A floor length gown, accented with a bustle back effect, was worn by the bride. The formal wedding gown featured a florentine neckline of organza over bridal satin accented with appliqued lace roses. It was accented with long fitted sleeves and a fitted bodice effect. A white organza rose was the central feature of her bridal veil, which formed a fountain of illusion veiling effect. She carried a bouquet of white roses lying in ruffles of net and lace.

The bridal attendants were Mrs. Norman Lynn Burk of Tulsa, cousin of the bride, as matron of honor; Miss Tinker Cox of Amarillo, the bride's cousin, and Miss Kathy Ryan of Kirksville, Missouri, the bridegroom's sister, as bridesmaids.

Identical floor length gowns of lavender silk with round necklines, short sleeves and a back bustle effect were worn by the bride's honor attendants. They wore headpieces of lavender satin roses which held bouffant veils of illusion, and carried nosegays of lavender seafoam and blue pompons.

A rose accented the bustle effect of the identical dresses worn by the flower girls, Miss Rebecca Ann Cox, sister of the bride, and Miss Stella Kay Saunders of Amarillo. They carried flower baskets of lavender seafoam filled with flower petals.

Honor attendants for the bridegroom were John Peter Norum, best man; Christopher Prentiss and Bob Levesque, groomsman. The bridegroom's attendants are associated with him in the 461st Bomb Wing at Amarillo Air Force Base.

Ushers for the evening ceremony were Bill Cox, brother of the bride, Bob Cox, cousin of the bride, John Moon and John Parrott, both of Amarillo Air Force Base. All ushers were from Amarillo.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cox wore a brown knit suit with a matching brown and white jacket and accessories of pale brown patent with a rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Ryan, was attired in a beige brocade dress

Happy Study Club Talks Of Texas

Texas was featured as the program of the Happy Woman's Study Club on Tuesday, March 31, in the home of Mrs. Robert Francey, with Mrs. D. L. Allison as co-hostess.

The program titled "Our Heritage in Texas" was opened with a pledge to the Texas flag and members answered roll call with their tales of Texas.

Mrs. A. A. Clark, program chairman, directed the program which included talks on "How People Lived On Texas Plantations" by Mrs. A. A. Clark; "How Texas Pioneers Lived" by Mrs. L. E. Talbert; and "Today and Tomorrow in Texas" by Mrs. Frank Walters.

During the business session, with Mrs. G. L. Robinson, president, presiding, club members voted to sponsor the Cancer Fund Drive in the Happy area.

They also discussed and voted to donate $1.00 each to a fund for sending a girl to Girls State. The donation will replace traditional corsages presented to guests on Guest Day. Twenty-four members were in attendance at the meeting.

with brown accessories and a white rose corsage.

A tiered wedding cake decorated with lavender wedding bells and seafoam effect frosting was served to guests at the reception honoring the couple. The reception was held in the church parlor, immediately after the wedding vows were solemnized.

Candles and white stock decorated the reception room. Presiding at the serving table were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Leon Cox, Mrs. Babe Cox, and Mrs. Jack Cox. They served coffee, punch and wedding cake to reception guests who were registered at the wedding and reception by Mrs. Charlotte Pollock.

For a short wedding trip, the bride wore a black and white linen check with white accessories and a white rose corsage. The couple is at home at 1308 Dahlia in Amarillo.

Mrs. Ryan, the former Penny Cox, attended West Texas State University in Canyon where she was active in the drama department playing such roles as Gertrude in 'Hamlet' and a lead part in 'Bus Stop', college drama productions. She also did work in the costuming and staging departments. She is a former employee of the Canyon News and is presently employed with Farrell Manor Motel in Amarillo.

Her husband is stationed with the 461st Bomb Wing at Amarillo Air Force Base.

Mrs. Harper Gives Program

Mrs. Ples Harper of Canyon presented a program on 'Texas Heritage' for members of the Tulsa Literacy Arts Club at a luncheon meeting in Nolte's Dining Room, Tulsa, on Thursday, March 5.

Mrs. Harper is president of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation, Inc., non-profit organization that constructed an amphitheater in Palo Duro State Park to produce a drama-spectacle of the history of the Panhandle during a ten week summer period each year.

Mrs. Vernon Garrison and Mrs. Jack Gilleland were hostesses for the meeting in Tulsa.

The three day choir contest began Tuesday of this week with junior high choirs from the panhandle participating in the contests. Junior High schools entered in this division included: Tulia; Phillips; Perryton; Stephen F. Austin of Borger; Pampa; Stanton; Dumas; Crockett of Amarillo; Sam Houston of Borger; Robert E. Lee of Pampa; Allyn-Finch of Dalhart; and William Travis, Horace Mann, Sam Houston, James Fannin, David Crockett, James Bowie and Stephen F. Austin, all of Amarillo.

Canyon High School's choir was entered in the choir contests Wednesday morning for Class A, AA, and AAA choir judging. Gene Murray directed the choir as they presented, "The Falcon," "Lament of the Enchantress" and "Glory Be To God."

Among other high schools of the Panhandle who participated in the choir events Wednesday were Lefors, Gruver, Hefford, Dumas, Stinnett, Dalhart, Perryton, Phillips and a sophomore and junior choir from Tascosa High School of Amarillo.

Expected on the university campus for choir contests today will be AAAA choirs from high schools in Borger, Pampa, and Amarillo including the Amarillo schools of Tascosa, Caprock, Palo Duro and Amarillo High.

Judges for the choir contests were Tom Adams, Snyder Junior High, Mrs. Augustus Spratt, Artesia High School of Artesia, New Mexico, and Jack Glover of Jefferson Junior High.

Phebean Class Meet April 9

"Christian Homes" was the program for the Phebean Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church last Thursday afternoon when members met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Marshall.

Mrs. Earl J. Davis presented the program which was based on Psalms 127:1 using as her division topic a "Hotel or Haven".

Presiding at the business meeting was Mrs. Leonard Winters, president. The devotional was presented by Mrs. J. T. Graham and Mrs. Beulah Messenger led a group prayer during the meeting.

Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Claude Boatman, co-hostess, served refreshments of a molded jello salad with creamed chicken sandwiches. A St. Patrick's Day theme was used in the refreshment course with table decorations carrying out the setting.

Present for the occasion were Mrs. Leonard Winters, Mrs. Fred Standley, Mrs. Lonnie Byars, Mrs. R. A. Smith, Mrs. J. T. Graham, Mrs. Earl J. Davis, Mrs. Beulah Messenger, Mrs. R. A. Hodges, Mrs. Carl Hartman, Mrs. Elmer Marshall and Mrs. Claude Boatman.

The next regular meeting for the class will be April 9 at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Fay Cannedy.

Pleasantview HD Club Meets

A pot luck luncheon and program on spring costumes and accessories was the highlight for last Wednesday's meeting of the Pleasantview Home Demonstration Club.

Mrs. Sally Pulley, home demonstration agent, presented the program on accessories at the meeting which was held in the home of Mrs. John Jennings.

Guests present for the occasion were Mrs. Pulley, Mrs. Bill Cleavinger, Mrs. Marvin Axe and Mrs. Ray Standley of Dimmitt.

Club members attending were Mrs. J. H. Barrett, Mrs. Walter Cranmer, Mrs. Bob Castleman, Mrs. Ed Cranmer, Mrs. Cristler Crain, Mrs. Blaine Hufnagle, Mrs. Jim Irlbeck, Mrs. Dick Lee, Mrs. H. M. Stokes, Mrs. Gilbert Irlbeck, Mrs. Ronnie Ratliff, Mrs. Wire Wright and the hostess, Mrs. Jennings.

Mrs. Wire Wright will be hostess for the next regular club meeting on March 25th at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Richard Pruett Heads Jaycee-ettes

Mrs. Richard Pruett was installed as president of the Canyon Jaycee-ettes at a salad supper program and installation service Monday evening of this week with Mrs. Gene Holler of Pampa, area vice president, conducting the ceremonies.

Also installed on the program were Mrs. Jackie Whitley, vice president; Mrs. Rex Griffin, secretary; Mrs. Allen Parsons, treasurer; and Mrs. Charles Marshall, state director for the club. Mrs. Marshall is the retiring president of the Jaycee-ettes.

Mrs. Roy Fortune served as mistress of ceremonies for the program which included an invocation by Mrs. Jackie Whitley; a welcome address by Mrs. Odell LaGrone; a group participation in the Jaycee-ette Creed, which was led by Mrs. Nick Dodson.

The retiring club president, Mrs. Charles Marshall, gave a resume report on the club's activities for the closing year which included an increase in active membership from 10 in 1963, to the current roll of 17 members.

Among civic and community projects the club sponsored were the annual Christmas nativity scene; tray favors for hospital patients on holidays; a basket of food for a needy family at Thanksgiving; assistance with the Mother's March of Dimes and numerous other civic projects.

"Friona has formed an active chapter of Jaycee-ettes now," commented Mrs. Marshall as she related the Canyon Jaycee-ettes for extension of the chapter and the installation banquet attendance of local members. Currently the Canyon club is working with a group of interested ladies at Happy for extension of a Jaycee-ette chapter there.

Assistance projects to the Jaycees of Canyon and other events which the local club participated in were the Jaycee poll tax booth, decoration for the Jaycee banquet and installation service, Fish Rodeo for youngsters, attendance at several area banquets, seminars and conventions including seven Jaycee-ettes who attended the area convention and workshop in Lubbock.

Treasury events sponsored by the club were a membership Box Supper social; white elephant sales; operation of concession stand at the Canyon Jaycee sponsored Quarter Horse and Junior Horse Shows; a wardrobe drawing at Christmas; and the sale of Jaycee and Jaycee-ette club jackets.

Following Mrs. Marshall's report and the installation of new club officers, Mrs. Richard Pruett, newly installed president, gave a short response to the club members and guests present and made a presentation of an artificial floral spray to Mrs. Marshall from the club.

Other awards presented on the program were a farewell gift to Mrs. Odell Call, who was elected as the first Jaycee-ette of the Quarter; and an insignia

Anniversary Celebrated

The 41st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Mickey was celebrated with a dinner in their honor on Sunday, March 15th, in the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ely of Canyon.

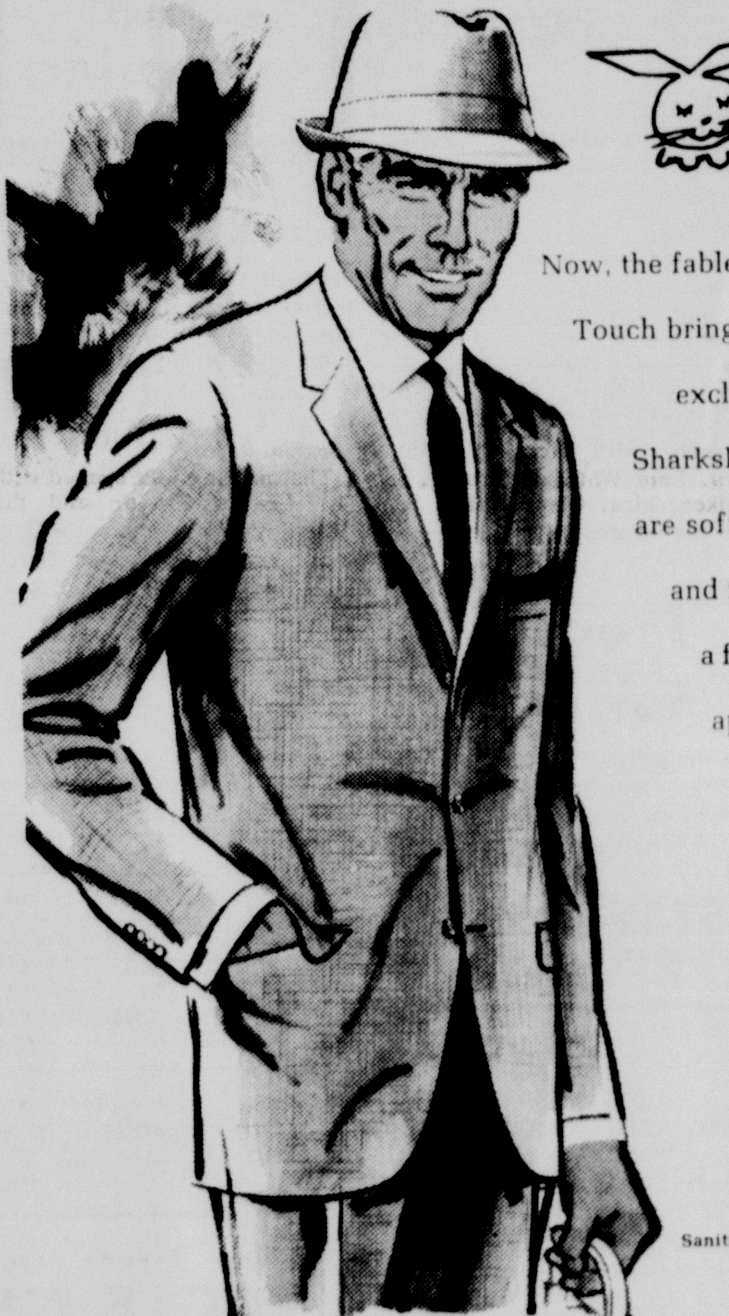

Guests attending the dinner celebration were their son's family, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mickey, Cynthia and David, from Tulia; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Woods and daughter, Lisa Marie, of Pampa; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkerson of Tulia.

Afternoon guests who visited were Mr. Mickey's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moran of Vernon; the Carl Moran Jr.s, and their two daughters from Amarillo; and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore and children from Olton.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SALE OF OIL AND GAS LEASE TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Notice is hereby given that the City Commission of the City of Amarillo has determined that it is advisable to lease for oil and gas purposes the following described land situated in Amarillo, Potter County, Texas, to-wit:

All of Section 167, Block 2, A. B. & M. Survey, Potter County, Texas, Save and Except the following tracts:

TRACT ONE: 4.35 acres out of said section conveyed by the City of Amarillo Enterprises, Inc., by deed dated February 4th, 1963 and filed on February 5, 1963 in Volume 859, Page 327 of the Deed Records of Potter County, Texas.

TRACT TWO: 0.282 acres out of said section conveyed by J.L. Nunn to Amarillo Oil Company by deed dated March 21st, 1949, and filed on March 29, 1949 in Volume 464, Page 559, of the Deed Records of Potter County, Texas, leaving to be conveyed 635.368 acres, more or less, which said lands are owned by the City of Amarillo and all or portions of which are used as public park, and that the City Commission of the City of Amarillo, Texas, has further determined that leasing said lands for investigation, exploration, prospecting for, drilling and mining for the production of oil and gas is not inconsistent with the public use now being made of such lands, provided that the use of a portion of the surface of said land for said mineral operating purposes is limited and restricted to a small portion or small portions thereof which may from time to time be designated by the City Commission of the City of Amarillo, and Notice is further given that the City Commission of the City of Amarillo intends to lease said lands for oil and gas purposes and the said City Commission has designated 11:00 o'clock a.m. on the 7th day of April, 1964, as the time and City Commission Room, Municipal Auditorium as the place where said City Commission will receive and consider bids for such oil and gas leases as it may determine to make. At such time, on said date and at the place named above the City Commission of the City of Amarillo, Texas, will receive and consider any and all bids submitted for the leasing of said lands, or any portions thereof, and in the discretion of the City Commission of the City of Amarillo, Texas, it shall award the lease to the highest and best bidder submitting a bid therefor, provided that if, in the judgment of the said City Commission, the bids submitted do not represent the fair value of said leases, it may in its discretion reject the same and again give notice and call for additional bids.

He worked one summer for $10 a month and an acre of potatoes. He counted on his potato crop bringing in $200 which would go for tuition. It did but the farmer for whom he had worked charged him $192 for hauling the crop to market.

He hired out to prune trees for 40 cents an hour. He worked eight hours and was asked by the woman who owned the trees if he would like to work two more hours—a full day.

He worked the additional two hours expecting to receive $4. The woman explained that if he had only worked 8 hours he would have received $3.20 but since he had worked a full day she only paid $3 a day.

Dr. Ferre told of having diptheria at the age of 15. The people with whom he was living refused to come near him for fear of catching the disease. They did not even call a doctor. Dr. Ferre's health was impaired.

There was a bright spot, a Swedish woman in the Minnesota community nursed him back to health. Also at the age of 15 he preached for the first time. He stayed out of school an entire year preaching.

Passages in some of the 20 books Dr. Ferre has written indicate a definite leaning toward socialism.

However, he concedes that socialism tends to kill initiative.

"Take away private property and you kill initiative which is a part of the spirit," he declared. "Yet, if you don't have community concern for man's total welfare, then you are going to take away from man's social responsibility."

"I don't believe we will be saved through any economic system. The system won't be much better than the people in it."

Asked to look at the future, he said:

Happy...

Jane Elliott filled the empty forward vacancy.

After a breather at half the Lueders' Pirates roared back and continued to close the gap. Toles racked up her fourth foul in the third period and Happy began to loose ground in the final period.

But with four minutes remaining in the game, Happy Cowgirls played an excellent defensive and offensive game to come from behind and take the lead.

Irita Bowe was fouled with the score 48-47 in favor of Lueders. After both free throws swished through the nets, Happy led 49-48 with 1:23 remaining.

Happy began their delay game, but Marcella Irlbeck was fouled in the closing moments. Both her shots counted from the free throw line and Happy stood ahead 51-48 with 12 seconds left to play.

The Pirates scored once more to bring the score to 51-50, but the Cowgirls were the victors as the final buzzer sounded.

Irita Bowe led the Cowgirls in scoring with 24 points. Marcella Irlbeck followed with 21 points and Martha Toles dropped in 2.

The Happy defensive team, known to tournament viewers as the "toy-bulldog" guards, played an outstanding game throughout the evening. Starting guards were Womack, who was replaced by Kay Harvey, Sharon Johnson and Jeanne Tirey.

In Happy's second game of the tournament Friday morning, Trent High School girls edged past the Cowgirls 46-40.

Struggling to guard a team made up of girls 5-7 and over, the Cowgirls kept scoring at a minimum for the Trent girls.

Martha Toles and Irita Bowe, both 5-8 starters for Happy were the only team members who stood above 5-4. Betty McAninch, 6-1 forward for Trent, led the Gorillas to a narrow victory.

Happy, obviously not hitting the nets Friday morning, took an early lead of 10-4, but soon fell behind 16-12 at the end of the first period.

The second period proved to be a sad one for the Cowgirls as they had trouble finding the basket. Marcella Irlbeck, who sank 13 of 16 free throws in Thursday night's opening round tilt against Lueders, missed four straight charity tosses on the one-and-one situation.

But the Gorillas found the scoring rough as the "toy bulldog" guards of Happy, led by Alice Womack, junior student at Happy, kept the scoring below the usual high level for Trent. At halftime Trent led 26-17.

The never-did defensive trio of Happy took action in the third quarter to hold Trent to only four points, while Happy shot its way back into contention.

But the tree-top tall Gorillas were too much for the small Cowgirls, and Happy ended the third period trailing only 28-30.

The final period was another show of top defensive play and deliberate offensive play for the Cowgirls. With 46 seconds left, Irlbeck traveled to the free toss line and dropped in one of a one-and-one situation bringing the score to 44-40.

The rest of the few seconds was dominated by Trent and the buzzer sounded with Happy behind, 46-40.

Happy, which hit 44.7 per cent against Lueders Thursday, netted only 28.6 percent. Trent hit 41.2 per cent from afield. The Cowgirls hit 21 of 30 from the free throw line while Trent made only four of 14.

In the playoff game Saturday

"I believe we are spiraling toward socialism."

Dr. Ferre said he was a religious fundamentalist until his junior year in college. His attitude toward the Bible as being totally and literally true changed when he realized that the Biblical Jews thought pi was three instead of being 3.14159-265.

Dr. Ferre does not consider himself theologically liberal.

On the Virgin Birth he says: "This is an issue which the New Testament does not make essential to salvation."

"They (the fundamentalists) have not been pained and weighed down by the historical problems involved."

On Nels F. S. Ferre: "I do not consider myself controversial. I do not feel controversial."

On the Canyon News: "In view of your background and beliefs, you have been very fair with me."

Dr. Ferre is abbot professor of theology at Andover Newton Theological School, Newton Centre, Mass. He is the father of five children.

He has lectured all over the world and holds many degrees, including a Harvard Ph.D.

morning against Rock Springs to determine the third place winner, Happy again bounced back to their regular ball playing schedule and walked away with the third place title.

Happy dealt Rock Spring Angoras their fifth defeat in 37 games with the 50-37 victory.

Happy's toy bulldog guards, Alice Womack, 5-3, Jeanne Tirey, 5-4 and Sharon Johnson, 5-4, were back in fine form Saturday morning breaking the contest wide open by limiting the Angoras to 13 points in the final 16 minutes.

The Cowgirls, ending their season with a creditable 34-9 record, were paced on offense by 5-4 Marcella Irlbeck who made 31 points while 5-8 Irita Bowe hit 12.

Rock Spring jumped ahead in the opening period 10-8, but by half, Happy led 26-24.

The Angoras tied the game in the first 22 seconds of the third quarter. Cowgirls, not to be outdone, ripped the nets for 11 straight points before the Angoras broke a seven-minute scoring drought on a five-footer by Judy Luce.

It was 37-28 for Happy as the final quarter opened. Then Sharon Johnson fouled out with 5:57 left and Happy prevailing, 43-32. Martha Toles also fouled out in the final period, but the Cowgirls dominated the rest of the game 50-37.

So fans of the Happy Cowgirls had reason to shout Sunday as the charter bus delivered the third place winners at the Happy High School doorstep—trophy and all.

And prospects look good for another trip to the state finals next year. With all forwards—Marcella Irlbeck, Irita Bowe and Martha Toles—graduating this year, the offense will have to be developed for next year. But the toy bulldog defense will return with Alice Womack, Sharon Johnson and Jeanne Tirey.

Damage...

the motel bills for the people.

Firemen and city officers sprayed foam on the three tanks and other boxcars in the wreckage to prevent a possible fire or explosion all day Tuesday.

Seventeen of the cars contained the lethal gas, but only three were ruptured. W. H. Jones, gas expert from Phillips Petroleum Company, arrived at the scene Tuesday afternoon, and one of the tanks was righted and the leak closed.

The other two tanks were being worked on late Wednesday.

One derailed car rammed an anhydrous ammonia tank near the crossing. Ammonia leaked for sometime, but the valves were closed Tuesday morning. The tank is owned by Taylor-Evans, Inc.

All rails near the wreckage area were buckled, but crewmen from Hereford, Amarillo and Canyon were moved into the vicinity early Tuesday and work on an auxiliary track began. By 12:30 p.m. the prefabricated track was down and trains which had been backed up to Amarillo and Hereford were allowed to pass through Canyon. Only one scheduled train was switched to another line Tuesday. All other trains went through Canyon as scheduled.

Trains using the shoefly track were checked carefully for flying sparks which might ignite the escaping liquid gas. Linemen in the Panhandle were dispatched to Canyon to repair telephone and telegraph lines which were severed by the accident.

Aside from the 17 cars containing the lethal gas, six cars carried miscellaneous company material and two were loaded with lumber. One car contained portable platforms (stands), one car carried heaters, and another was loaded with fertilizers. The remainder of the 161 boxcars were empty.

Santa Fe officials called on the Randall County Sheriff's office, the city police and the volunteer fire department to aid in evacuating the local residents, and guarding the area. Police roped off an area around the wreck scene and asked local persons not to come to the railroad crossing.

Meanwhile, company crewmen with the aid of 10 bulldozers and heavy equipment were moving the wreckage away from the ruined railing. The cars have been moved to a vacant lot southwest of the scene and will be placed back on the track once the railing is reloaded.

Private companies bought the damaged lumber and began hauling it away Tuesday afternoon. Kenneth C. May, superintendent of the Plains Division for Santa Fe, said wreckage would not be completely removed for several weeks, but that work to get the cars off the damaged rail would continue.

E. F. Green of Amarillo, engineer of the derailed train, said he was not aware of the wreck until the emergency air brakes

Senator...

In addition to granting scholarships and fellowships, the senator said Congress had passed a vocational agriculture act enabling students to study mechanical, industrial and radio arts along with the other vocational courses.

"We have begun a new work-study program where the student works a half day and goes to school a half day."

"This program sets up area vocational-residential schools where the student can live in dormitories on a campus. If he passes the tests at the school and if he shows interest he is given a certificate from the school."

"This program gets the child out of the home environment and gives him an opportunity to work in specific fields," he explained.

Yarbrough said the original bill called for 15 such vocational schools, but only five have been established. One is to be opened in the Spanish Southwest, according to Yarbrough, and he told the guests at the morning coffee he was working to get it located within the state of Texas.

Two other bills which have been passed by Congress and were the library bill, giving involve education were the library bill, giving money to build more libraries in the United States, and the mental retardation bill.

"The mental retardation bill includes an education section which provides funds to train teachers to train handicap children," Yarbrough continued.

He explained work was being done for a GI bill which would enable service men to continue their education after they have served in the armed forces.

He also pointed out he was working to pass a bill which would let students borrow money in order to attend colleges and universities.

"Students need money to attend school, and I believe we should offer grants to them."

"I am advocating that education be free to students from the first grade through the junior college level. We should not charge tuition through junior college," Yarbrough said.

In discussing national politics briefly, Yarbrough said he believed a civil rights bill would be passed this year, but not as strong as many senators and representatives wanted.

"Because it is an election year, I believe a civil rights bill will be passed this year. Congressional leaders are pushing to get one passed," he explained.

Yarbrough stopped in Canyon while on a sweep through the Panhandle area. After leaving the Canyon reception he traveled to Amarillo where he opened his campaign headquarters.

David Matthis introduced the senator to the visitors Saturday morning.

went on and the train stopped. The front section of the train continued to Amarillo and the back section of the train was taken to Umberger until the shoefly track was completed.

Other crew members included R. L. Skaggs, conductor, C. L. Parker, fireman, H. J. Lockhart and J. D. Whipple, brakemen. All are from Amarillo.

Canyon firemen have been on the scene since early Tuesday. The volunteers stayed at the wreck area all night Tuesday watching for danger from the leaking gas.

Families evacuated from their homes in the early morning hours Tuesday had varied reactions.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Harvey, who reside on the Hereford Highway and Fourth Street, one block north of the wreck, were aroused at 5 a.m. Tuesday by Canyon firemen. They spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harvey.

"Something woke me, but I didn't know what it was. I went back to sleep and then the firemen came and told us to leave our homes because of the leaking gas," Mrs. Harvey recalled.

"We couldn't smell the gas from where we were, but I understand the fumes were heavy in some sections of that block," Mrs. Harvey continued.

Another family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Blake and their two children, were evacuated about 6 a.m. Tuesday.

"Leaving the house wasn't the most pleasant thing, but it was better than staying with the possible danger," Blake said.

"We will move back in when Jack Jennings (Canyon fire marshal) says it is okay," he continued.

The Blakes stayed in a local motel Tuesday night.

Canyon firemen will stay at the scene until the fire and explosion dangers have been eliminated. The gas tanks were to be shut off sometime Wednesday afternoon.

SENATOR RALPH Yarbrough, right, shakes hands with David Matthis, chairman of the Randall County Democratic executive committee, Saturday morning at the Trail Motor Hotel. Yarbrough stopped in Canyon for a coffee and spoke to the more than 50 persons at the reception. He continued on his sweep through the Panhandle to Amarillo where he opened his campaign headquarters.

Fast Stop... Guitarists...

a whole lot of time to think about what had happened.

"When a train derails, there's a lot that has to be done pretty fast. I first tried to count how many cars had been involved, then I had to gather up my papers in the caboose and let the Amarillo dispatcher know what had happened."

There was a two-way radio in the caboose, on which Skaggs had been talking to the dispatcher not three minutes before the grinding halt.

"After talking with the dispatcher and deciding which way to detour traffic, we spent two or three hours looking around for anything hot. I knew the LPG gas and some ammonia were leaking, so we notified the Fire Department and police."

As soon as train and local authorities had been notified and had arrived at the scene of the wreck to take over, the derailed crew continued on in to Amarillo with the engine and front 50 cars.

"I was so busy at the site that it wasn't until we were on our way on in to Amarillo that I realized how shook I was. Something like that is really a shock," says Skaggs, who said he had been in a previous derailment—much smaller than the one Tuesday morning.

"I kept thinking how lucky we were and how bad it could have been if the derailment had occurred several cars back from where it did."

The topic of conversation in the caboose before the wreck was ironic.

"Just before the wreck, Lockhart and I had been talking about another accident in which a guy got his back hurt. He had been riding with his back toward the front of the car, and the impact threw the man clear off the box. I guess maybe just talking about that wreck made us brace ourselves a little more," said Skaggs.

At the other end of the train, things were different.

E. F. Green, the engineer, says he didn't know what had happened.

"All of a sudden the air set up and locked the wheels, so I knew something had happened."

"But any one of several things can cause that, so I didn't know what had happened until the other brakeman, J. D. Whipple, went back to check. When he came back he told me we had 'em all over the ground,'" relates Green.

Green said Tuesday afternoon that he never even got to see the wreckage.

"I'm supposed to stay in the cab to protect the heavy end (the engine) and all I know is what they told me. We didn't even feel a jar up front."

Riding with Green and Whipple was fireman C. L. Parker. All are from Amarillo.

Green has been with Santa Fe since 1947 and says he has made the run he was on a number of times. He had never before been involved in a derailment.

"We were going between 55 and 60 miles per hour at the time. After the brakes locked, we probably skidded another half to three quarters of a mile down the track."

"Even if it's not very rough when the derailment occurs, it's still a shock when you find out what's happened."

Green said he hadn't thought too much about the length of the train.

"Whatever we get, we pull," he says.

Green apparently wasn't quite as badly 'shook' as his crew members in the caboose. At 3 p.m. Tuesday he was on his way out of Amarillo at the controls of another freight.

Sunny weather and fair skies (interspersed with wind and plenty of dirt) provided enough clues for almost anyone. Spring is here—almost. Pretty Sandy Thrasher, 4-year-old daughter of Mrs. Janell Thrasher of 1110 8th Ave. was even lucky enough to find a fistfull of early jonquils. For the most part, flowers are just beginning to bud in Canyon yards, but early blooms are plentiful along the south side of Neblett Hospital, where the picture was taken.

Girl Scouts Set Record In Area Cookie Sales

A record was set by the Canyon Girl Scouts and Brownies as they counted upsales sheets on their 'cookie sales,' campaign earlier this month according to Mrs. Dean Nicholas, sales chairman.

"The girls sold a total of 5,232 individual boxes in the week-long sale," commented Mrs. Nicholas which tops their record sale of 4,136 boxes sold in 1963.

Miss Susan Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hayes, was top salesgirl for the Girl Scouts division of the sale. Miss Hayes, a member of Troop 1, sold 203 boxes of the cookies.

In the Brownies division, Miss Linda Laughery took top sales honors with 162 boxes sold. A member of Brownie Troop 12, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Laughery.

"Over 200 girls participated in the Brownies and Girl Scout programs in Canyon," says Mrs. Nicholas. However, only about 160 are active in the annual cookie sales because the youngest girls do not participate. The cookie sale is conducted by members of the organizations from the third grade Brownie division through the senior scouting program.

The cookies, which sold for 50 cents per box, are one of the main money making projects of the local Girl Scout organization. Funds received from the sale will be used for upkeep of the Girl Scout building, utilities and day camp expenses incurred by the organization.

"The local treasury for the scout council will realize about 25 cents per box on the sales," commented Mrs. Nicholas.

The four flavors of cookies, which are sold on an order basis, will be delivered to buyers in early April according to Mrs. Nicholas, sales chairman.

WT Fraternities Pledge 80 Men In Spring Rush

A total of 80 men have been pledged by the five national social fraternities for the spring semester at West Texas State University, the dean of men's office has announced.

Newest organization on campus, Phi Kappa Delta, a colony of Phi Delta Theta, which was formed here in January, 1963, pledged the largest number, 21, for membership. The four older fraternities announced about the same number of pledges.

Pledging Phi Kappa Delta are Bill Miracle of Amarillo, Charles Harr of Wichita Falls, Bill Smith of Dumas, J. B. Usery of Amarillo, C. E. Cantrell of Pampa, Glenn Banks of Snyder, Bob Haggard of Canyon, Wayne Storrs of Amarillo, Robert Garlington of Muleshoe, Peter Harr of Roosevelt, Francis Shapley of Gruver, Mike Connell of Muleshoe, Kenneth Splawn of Muleshoe, Johnny Baer of Amarillo, Larry Jones of Pampa, Peter Roberts of Shamrock, Brian Deady of Dallas, Bud Smith of Amarillo, John Miller of Midland, John Banks of Amarillo, and Eric Beagle of Dumas.

Sigma Nu pledges are Ronald Bertrand of Floydada, Max Rucker of Floydada, Jack Liston of Amarillo, Bib Finney of Plainview, Dennis Bingham of Seminole, Randy Chennault of Odessa, G. B. Jackson of Midland, Gerald Grant of Petersburg, Kent Green of Plainview, Darrell Garrison of Guyton, Okla., Jon Pitts of Pampa, James Blaine of Amarillo, and Phil Pennington of Canyon.

Pledges for Alpha Tau Omega are Jerry Todd of Comanche, Dennis Flanagan of Garden Grove, Calif., Ed Clark of Plainview, Ronnie Blackmore of Perryton, Robert Burks of Dalhart, Henry Harnly of Pampa, Danny Haskin of Panhandle, Joe Elms of Kerrick, Jimmy Pritchett of Floydada, Bud Roan of Amarillo, Billy Wallace of Tahoka, Ted Allen of Floydada, and Gregory Klein of Reading, Pa.

Kappa Alpha Order's new pledges are David Dowell of Hereford, Charles Thomas of Hereford, Michael Goodwin of Dimmitt, Don Cook of Stamford, Jerry Roberson of Miami, Rick Rousser of Sunray, Billy Joe

Patton of Sundown, Lynton Alford of Hereford, James Elder of Panhandle, Gary Combs of Dalhart, James Eubank of Odessa, Jeff Smith of Midland, Langdon White of Odessa, Arnold Chew of Allentown, Pa., Harvey

Plank Heads Club At WT

Rhett Plank was elected chairman of the West Texas State University Young Republicans at a business meeting Tuesday night.

Bill Miller was named chairman and Connie Williams will serve as secretary.

Tom Cunningham was elected treasurer of the newly organized group.

Cliff Humphrey and Kerry Knorpp will serve as members-at-large to the executive committee.

Three delegates will represent the local chapter at the state Young Republican convention in Galveston March 21-22. Connie Williams, Mills Latham and Plank will travel to the convention.

Next meeting of the organization will be Thursday, April 2, at 6:30 p.m. in the Windsor Room of the student union building on the WT campus.

Dodson TV took four games from Byrd Pharmacy in opening action for the Mixed Up Couples league last week; Crossland Insurance had a 4-0 over Wayne Wirt Electric; Griffin's Truck Stop washed Taylor and Sons with a win of four; Vance Hall and Jess Ford fought but Vance Hall took a clean win of four games; and Canyon Glass and Trim won three games from the Pharmacy.

Top bowlers of the league were Rhea Sanford with a 175 count in the ladies division, Reba Pharris had women's honors with a 482 series. Norman Tuck and Eddie Knowles shared high game honors with a 212 tie for the event; and Burl Southern slipped by to take the high series with a 587 pin count.

GS Troop 7 Plans Party

Girl Scout Troop 7 met recently at the First Methodist Church to make plans for a 'troop birthday party' which will be held soon.

Twenty-seven girls were in attendance at the regular weekly meeting Monday afternoon of this week. They sang a variety of songs and then heard badge reports from Debby Wright and Debbie White during the program.

A new scout, Miss Sammy Gorer, was initiated at a recent meeting of the troop which is led by Mrs. Keith Jones and Miss Sharon Vance, assistant leader.

Workshop Session Set For March 21

The Junior Livestock Building will be the site for a special record book workshop session for all foods leaders on Saturday, March 21, according to Mrs. David Pulley, home demonstration agent.

All leaders are urged to attend the workshop which begins at 10 a.m.

Sunday School Class Plans Dinner Mar. 21

Round-the-World will be the theme for a progressive dinner for members of the Crusader's Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church of Canyon to be held on Saturday evening, March 21.

The dinner will begin with a group meeting and fellowship in the Delbert Davis home, 1008 25th St., at 7 p.m.

Guests will then adjourn to the Keith Jones home, 2417 8th Avenue, for a salad plate and the main course of Italian spaghetti.

The L. J. Witkowski home, 2415 11th Avenue, will be the site for the dessert course and an entertainment program of games later in the evening.

Members of the class will arrange and conduct the progressive styled affair. A nursery worker will be available at the church for child care and supervision of youngsters, for those couple's desiring it.

Jerry Richardson of Canyon, center, smiles broadly as he accepts a blanket from Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State University, and Coach Joe Kerbel. WT football players received their jackets, sweaters and blankets in presentation ceremonies Tuesday night in the Buffalo gymnasium. Seniors received blankets having a "T" and the boy's name and number on it. Junior and sophomore players received jackets and freshmen received sweaters.

WT Hosts Contest

Father-Daughter Girl Scout Banquet Friday night was quite an affair for Brownies and Girl Scouts of Canyon. Don Britain is shown as he prepares to get a meal prepared by Terry, seated right. Terry is eight years old and is in the third grade. Each troop performed a skit for the visiting fathers at the annual box lunch affair.

Girl Scout Fathers Honored At Banquet

The all-purpose room of Rex Reeves Elementary School was the site for an annual father-daughter affair of the Canyon Girl Scouts and Brownies last Friday night.

An estimated attendance of over 200 fathers and daughters were present for the box-style supper and entertainment program which followed.

Rev. Newton Starnes gave the invocation for the supper which began at 7 o'clock.

Rev. Newton Starnes gave the invocation for the supper which began at 7 o'clock.

Becki Lassiter was mistress of ceremonies for the entertainment program which was presented by groups from each individual troop of the Girl Scouts and Brownies in Canyon.

A flag ceremony which opened the program was presented by Girl Scouts of Troop 1. Second grade Brownies from Mrs. Bill Taylor's troop sang the "Pledge of Allegiance".

The "Brownie Song" was sung by second grade Brownies.

Mrs. Wesley Cox's troop, Brownies of Troop 14-A sang the musical numbers "Just A Boy and A Girl" and "White Coral Bells" during the program. A skit was presented by members of Troop 14-B Brownies.

"The Desperado" and the "Peanut Song" were presented by Brownies of Troop 12. Junior Girl Scouts of Troop 9 sang "Down By the Sea Shore" and the "Fun Song" at the event.

A folk dance was presented by junior Girl Scouts of Troop 7. Girl Scout Troop 2 presented a western pantomime on the evening program which was concluded with a skit by Senior Troop 6.

Local women who work as leaders for the Girl Scouts and Brownies are Mrs. Wesley Cox, Mrs. Bill Taylor and Mrs. L. C. Robinson, who head individual troops of second grade Brownies. Third grade Brownies are under the leadership of Mrs. B. J. Ormsby, troop 14-A, and Mrs. Troy Martin, troop 14-B. Mrs. Sam Jolly is sponsor for the fourth grade Brownie Troop 12. Leadership in the Girl Scout troops include Mrs. B. J. Ormsby, Mrs. Keith Jones, Mrs. Billy Hill, Mrs. Dean Nicholas, and Shirley Anderle.

Mrs. Charles Nester, Mrs. Alfred Daniel and Mrs. Tom Mcowan are officers for the local council. Other members of the council include each troop leader and her assistants.

Mrs. Charles Wright was overall planning chairman for the annual father-daughter event, which featured a Sweetheart theme in decorations. Each troop was in charge of decorating for their own troop tables. Becky Wright and Mary Ann Frank were responsible for lighting and curtains during the banquet program.

Cub Scouts Celebrate Mardi Gras

Mardi Gras for Cub Scouts of Pack 31 was held last Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian Church of Canyon as the Cub Scouts and their parents and leaders met for their monthly pack meeting.

Johnny Barrett, den chief for Den 2, led the parade procession of Cubs who were adorned in a variety of masks and costumes that had been constructed at their den meetings. Each Cub carried a balloon in the parade.

The opening flag ceremony was conducted by Cubs of Den 4. Dens 1 and 2 were recognized for perfect attendance at the meeting. Cubs from each den were in attendance along with at least one of their parents.

Dick Ziegler, cub master, and Mrs. Dick Barrett presented good luck tokens to each of the Cub Scouts of the two perfect attendance dens.

Ziegler presided during the awards ceremony when Bobcat badges were presented to Kevin Smith, Gary Don Bednorz, Glen Holcomb, Jerry Edwards, Bobby Joe Neal, Andy Cooper, and Tommy Hughes.

Other awards presented on the program went to Ricky Ziegler and Mike Smith, the gold arrow for Lion; and Corky Barrett, silver arrow for Bear.

Den 1 Cubs were in charge of the closing ceremony. It was announced during the meeting that April's pack meeting on the 23rd will be the annual 'charter night' with a local scout representative presenting the Pack's charter to Dick Ziegler, cub master, and Rev. John Lars Hamerson, minister of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Pat Edmondson went to Hollis, Okla. recently to help celebrate the 83rd birthday of her grandmother, Mrs. L. F. Martin. She also did some antique shopping while there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Eavenson spent a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Oliver and girls. They are Mrs. Oliver's parents from Vernon.

The Roland Hornsby family have had Jean's mother visiting for a few days.

She is Mrs. Essie Mitchell from Wheeler. Her son, Vernon, came Sunday to take her back home.

Welcome to the Fred Finke family who moved into their new home south of Mack Avenue.

Fred and Darlene have two boys, David, 8, and Daren, 16, who are attending school in Canyon.

Fred is a lab technician at the State Highway Department. The Finke's already have many friends in the area, because they formerly delivered the Amarillo Globe-Times in the area.

Danny Davis spent Friday and Saturday at R.A. Camp with Trinity Baptist Church group at the Baptist Assembly Grounds, northeast of Canyon.

Danny had a Sunday guest from Amarillo, Neil Hemilstrand. Danny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Davis on Arden Road.

Jodie Davis spent Thursday in Clarendon to celebrate her mother's 58th birthday. Her mother is Mrs. C. B. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Davis sponsored an Intermediate II Training Union Easter party at their home.

There were 15 present to enjoy hamburgers, punch and cookies. The group played games after the meal. They are from Trinity Baptist Church.

Mrs. Jodie Davis has taken Den 3 Cub Scouts until school is out, but will not be able to continue with them next fall. Anyone interested, please contact Harold Prichard, cubmaster of Pack 97 or Mrs. Davis.

We all appreciate the work Mrs. Claudia Christner has done with this den and hate to see her move away.

Den 3 cubs worked on their Mardi Gras costumes at this week's meeting.

Den 6 cubs started on their masks for the pack meeting. "Mardi Gras" is the theme for March.

Leslie Rogers had refreshments for the group.

Mrs. Sol Johnston and her grandson, Pat Harkins, spent the weekend visiting in Mountain View, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Marguerite Huyck is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Holwyn, in Damon, Texas.

Traci Bufkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bufkin, has the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Morrison visited his mother, Mrs. E. S. Morrison, who has been in the hospital.

They also visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller. All live in Memphis.

Our sympathy goes to Mrs. J. C. Duling whose brother died in Arlington, Texas. Mrs. Duling, her daughter, Virginia, and husband went to the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wheeler on Arden Road have been to Houston to visit their daughter and family.

Mrs. Carl Frye has been in Ft. Worth visiting her mother, Mrs. Etta Fox, and her sister, Mrs. Geo. Moody.

Recent visitors in the Jerry Hays home were Jerry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hays from Memphis, and his sister, Mrs. John Clark and family from Richardson.

Greenhaven Home Demonstration Club met Monday, March 16, at 2:00 p.m. with Mrs. B. B. Caudle.

The club had prayer and discussed business matters.

Mrs. Sally Pulley presented the program and demonstrated with shoes and fabrics, "Shoes Well-Dressed Women Should Choose."

The hostess served coffee and a dessert salad. The next meeting will be with Mrs. V.E. Lundgreen, 5129 Arden, on April 6 at 2:00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Taylor and family went to Roswell Saturday on business and visited with relatives and friends.

Don Edmondson celebrated his 13th birthday on Friday the 13th with a family dinner.

Kelley, voting delegate for the Canyon FFA chapter; Gayle Rea, candidate for Area I president; Doris Smith, current fifth vice president of the area; and Lynda Hughes, area choir member.

WT Rodeo April 9-11

Some 200 contestants are expected to be on hand April 9-11 for the West Texas Intercollegiate Rodeo to be held at the Randall County Sheriff's Posse Rodeo Arena.

Sponsored by the T Anchor Rodeo Club at West Texas State University, the rodeo is sanctioned by the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association.

Contestants from at least 12 different schools will be competing for team and individual honors in eight events: bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, steer wrestling, calf roping, ribbon roping, the girls barrel race and the girls goat tying.

Belt buckles and prize money will be awarded to the top contestants in each event, and a team trophy will be presented to the top-ranking team in the rodeo. Prize money will come from entry fees ranging from $15 to $20 per event.

Performances will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday. A fourth performance is scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday.

Dr. Vigness To Speak At Club Dinner

Dr. David M. Vigness, head of the history department at Texas Technological College, will be the speaker for the annual History Club banquet Thursday at West Texas State University.

The banquet is sponsored jointly by the History Club and Phi Alpha Theta, national honorary history fraternity. It is scheduled at 7 p.m. in the East Dining Hall.

Presidents of the groups, who will be presiding, are Peggy Sue Meathenia of Canyon and Kathy Winburn of Amarillo.

Dr. Vigness will speak on "The Spanish Heritage of the Southwest." Holding the B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Texas, Dr. Vigness attended Schreiner Institute, where he was head of the history department before going to Tech in 1956.

Specializing in Latin American History, Dr. Vigness has written a number of articles in that field for historical journals. He assisted in editing "Documents of Texas History." He is a member of the Texas State Historical Association, American Historical Association, Mississippi Valley Historical Association, the Southern Rocky Mountain Council of Latin American Studies, and the Conference on Latin American History of the American Historical Association.

In 1957, Dr. Vigness spent seven months in Santiago, Chile, as a Fulbright lecturer on American Civilization at Catholic University and University of Santiago.

Parcel Post Rates Go Up

Parcel post packages mailed after April 1 will have an increased postage rate of 5 cents per pound according to an announcement made this week by Marion Higdon, postmaster.

The parcel post increase was approved recently by the Interstate Commerce Commission and is expected to yield about $75.4 million annually.

"Actual increase per package will be determined by the weight of the package and the distance it is being sent," said Higdon.

The higher rates will not affect air parcel post or international parcel post. To illustrate the effect of the new rates here, Mr. Higdon noted that a six-pound parcel—which is about average weight—for local delivery will now cost 37 cents instead of 32 cents.

February 1, 1960, was the last parcel post increase as pointed out by the postmaster.

Stock for the event will be furnished by Walt Alsbaugh of Alamogordo, Colo. Judges will be John Holt of Lubbock and David Hopper of Hereford.

A dance will be held from 9:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. on Friday and Saturday in the WT Student Union Building. Music will be furnished by Don Allen and his band from Lubbock.

To participate in an intercollegiate rodeo, contestants must have at least a C average in their academic work.

Baptist Choirs Plan Program

"Seven Last Words of Christ", an Easter message in song, will be presented by the chapel and church choirs of the First Baptist Church in a special program at the church on Sunday evening, March 22.

Charles Lovell, minister of music of the First Baptist Church, will direct the choirs as they present the musical Easter message which was written by DuBois.

Soloists on the program will be Mrs. James Dunn, soprano; Mrs. Charles Brasher, soprano; Bill Knighton, tenor; John Robert Wheelock, baritone; and Charles Lovell, baritone.

The public is invited to the special program which will begin at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church of Canyon, March 22.

Schooner Club Views Slides

Schooner Club members will be presented a program of slides and comments on the recent Baptist Student Union's retreat with students from the University of Mexico at their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, March 24.

Mrs. J. Edwin Low, a former missionary with her husband in Nigeria, who now lives in Canyon will be one of the guest speakers on the program. Mrs. Low and her husband, Dr. Low, were among the sponsors who attended the religious retreat in Mexico earlier this year.

Also speaking on the program will be W. C. Duke of Midland, a junior student at West Texas State University, and the Misses Nancy Hampton and Rita Cartwright, both of Amarillo, who are senior students at the university. The three students were members of the BSU entourage who visited Mexico for a 10 day retreat and sightseeing trip.

Mrs. Low and the local college students will show a series of colored slides of the country and add their personal comments on the success and reasoning for the special religious retreat.

The devotional will be presented by Miss Renee Owen as the regular monthly meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of the First Presbyterian Church of Canyon. Host committee members for the meeting include Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wheelock, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Snyder, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tomlinson.

CHS Students Attend Fine Arts Festival

Canyon High School was represented at the Festival of Fine Arts at Oklahoma College for Women in Chickasha last week by Misses Lil Cowart, Rose Ellen Parker, Rob Barnard and Wam Moore.

Darius "Johnny" Boroumand represented West Texas State University at the festival of Shakespearean literature, and its presentations.

Scenes from "Hamlet" were presented by the high school students during the festival and Mr. Boroumand presented the Prince of Morocco scenes from "The Merchant of Venice." The scenery settings were costumed by Erin Wertenberger, technical director of the Branding Iron Theatre on the campus of WTSU.

Directing the high school presentation of "Hamlet" was Mrs. Margaret Foster, speech instructor at Canyon High School. Wm. A. Moore directed scenes for the "Merchant of Venice" presentation.

Evaluating the scenes were Prof. Claribel Baird of the University of Michigan; Dr. Virginia McCracken and Dean Frances Dinsmore Davis of Oklahoma College for Women.

Students from four states ranging in divisions from grade school to high school and university level participated in the three day festival of arts.

During the festival events, the local delegation attended a production of "Othello" by the University of Oklahoma drama department. The production was directed by Dr. Carl Cass, who has been a judge for one-act play contests at WTSU.

The Canyon High School students, Mr. Boroumand, and their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Moore were guests of the Oklahoma College for Women's production of the "Merry Wives of Windsor" which was directed by Prof. Grant Kilpatrick.

While in Chickasha, Mr. and Mrs. Moore were luncheon guests of Dr. and Mrs. George Grady. Dr. Grady is president of the Oklahoma College for Women, of which Mrs. Moore is an alumnae member and was presented in several theatre productions while a student at the college.

Methodists Attend Guild

The Northwest Texas Conference Wesleyan Service Guild that was held in the First Methodist Church in Plainview last weekend, March 14 and 15, was attended by six delegates from Canyon.

"In Faith We Serve" was the theme of the meeting which was attended by over 234 delegates from this conference. Miss Joyce Hill, daughter of the George Hills of Canyon, and one of the Methodist Church missionaries spoke to over-flow crowds on Saturday night and the two Sunday services.

A native West Texan, Miss Hill was born in Canadian and graduated from Canadian High School. She also did degree work at West Texas State University, Canyon, Scarritt College in Nashville, Tennessee and Peabody College in Nashville.

Her current missionary assignment is in Buenos Aires, Argentina. She was assigned to Cuba during 1952-60, inclusive. Presently she is on a leave of absence from duty and visiting with her friends and relatives in the Panhandle, as well as being guest speaker in area churches.

Attending the meeting from Canyon were Mrs. Rae Walters, Mrs. Joe A. Hawkins, Miss Virginia Rossiter, Mrs. Louise Mitchell, Mrs. Mitchell's daughter, Mary, and Mrs. Olga Seales.

Billy Cawthon is pictured holding a historical poster which he will enter in the Texas State Historical Survey Committee's Civil War Centennial essay and poster contest. Prizes of scholarship tuition will be awarded to top winners in the statewide contest. Cawthon was the winner in the drawing contest for stone plaques which will depict each county's history on the entry to the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation's amphitheater site in Palo Duro Canyon State Park. Pictured, far right, is a poster painted by Miss Marie Hernandez.

6 Students Enter Civil War Contest

Six students of Canyon High School have entered the Texas State Historical Survey Committee's Civil War Centennial essay and poster contests according to Mrs. T. B. McCarter, county historical chairman.

Entered in the essay division were Carol Anderson, Fay Ann Brown and Lil Cowart. Poster contest entries from the high school are Billy Cawthon, Susan Gillham and Marie Hernandez.

First place winners in each category in the state will be honored in ceremonies at Austin during Texas Civil War History Appreciation Week, April 20-26. The top students will receive a year's tuition scholarship to the state-supported college or university of his choice.

Certificates and other prizes will be awarded to local county winners according to Mrs. McCarter, local chairman, who reports that all entries will be sent to the State Archives in an effort to further a statewide project to record Texas' history during the Civil War period. Essays will be bound for the Archives library, and are written on the history of the Texas Civil War as related to the individual students county. Poster entries will cover a variety of subjects of a statewide nature.

Hereford Man In Accident

Lazander Kearns, 34 years old, Hereford, suffered severe face lacerations about 11:30 o'clock Sunday night in a one-car accident 3 miles west of Canyon.

The accident occurred on the Hereford highway.

Officers said the Kearns car knocked down two guard posts and hit two embankments.

Kearns was alone in the car. It did not overturn.

He was held overnight in Neblett Hospital and then was released.

The car was heavily damaged.

Business Society Founded

Robert Raef, an Amarillo business student at West Texas State University, was elected president of the Society for Advancement of Small Enterprise at an organizational meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Some 23 students and persons interested in small business were on hand for the meeting in the Formal Lounge of the Student Union Building. Ocie Chism of the WT School of Business is faculty sponsor.

Other officers elected include Jim Brunton of Amarillo, vice president; Doug Howard of Amarillo, secretary, and Joel Low of Canyon, treasurer. Special guest at the meeting was Charles Neal, Amarillo attorney.

Chism said the club plans to meet twice a month and to have established small businessmen give short talks to the group and to serve on panel discussions.

"We hope anyone interested in small enterprises will join the group," said Chism. "We hope to get members from all departments of the college and from off-campus as well."

More formally known as Iota Epsilon, the society was founded several years ago on the Oklahoma University campus in Norman.

Spring Training Opens For Buffalo Prospects

The first steps of molding the 1964 version of the West Texas State University Buffalos were taken this week as coach Joe Kerbel and his squad opened spring football workouts.

But with only 17 lettermen and one starter returning for the fall season, the coaching staff will have its hands full.

"If we had to pick a starting lineup right now," said Kerbel, "we would have an extremely green team. But others have faced this task before, including me, and I feel we have a good group of young men who want to play football for West Texas."

The first scrimmage of the 20-day practice season will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the Buffalo Bowl, and the general public is invited. Another scrimmage is scheduled Saturday, April 4, and spring training will culminate with the Alumni Game at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Apr. 10.

The only returning full-year starter this year is Charley Daves, a 200-pound center, who averaged some 13 tackles per game on defense last year—most of them unassisted. Another stalwart will be Russell Mundy, 205-pound fullback, who has averaged more than five yards per carry during the past two seasons.

Other returning squad members include ends Woody Gilliland and Butch Walterscheid; tackles Wilton Manley and Bobby Walton; guards David Sims, Terry Funk and Vernon Kosub; centers Daves and Doc Rowell. Helping with Mundy in the backfield will be halfbacks Jerry King, Earl West and Tony Waters; quarterbacks Bill Bundy, Greg Klein and David Fleming. Klein and Fleming were freshmen during the 1963 season, but were pressed into late season duty after Hoot Gibson and Bundy went out with injuries.

Mundy, Gilliland, Manley, Walton, Daves, Rowell, King, West and Bundy are seniors.

The returning members are expected to be bolstered by a good crop of sophomores and junior college transfers.

When football gets underway in earnest next fall, WT will have its work cut out for it. In their first five games the Buffs will face Ohio University, Arizona State, Texas Western, North Texas State and Memphis State. All but the North Texas game will be held in Buffalo Bowl. Following the Memphis State game, the Buffs will face Trinity, San Jose State, New Mexico State and Arlington State.

It looks like a long fall, but says Kerbel, "It's going to take a lot of hard work on the part of our coaching staff, as we have to find a number of key ball players to fill in the empty spots created by graduation of our fine seniors from last season. But we do have some fine men, and I feel we might be able to find the players we need during our spring practice days."

The 74-member squad will be working out each afternoon on the practice field north of the campus, beginning at 4 p.m. on Mondays and at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday. Saturday workouts begin at 2:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend the workouts.

Canyon Boxers Claim Honors

Two Canyon boys, members of Ronnie's Boxing Club of Amarillo, participated last week in the Wichita Falls-Red River Boxing Tournament in Wichita Falls.

Avery Thrasher was one of six members of the club to claim a championship. Thrasher was fighting in the 125-pound high school division.

Jerry Criddle made it to the semi-finals before elimination. He was fighting in the 118-pound high school class.

Both boys have been members of the boxing club during the past season and have participated in several tournaments. The tournament last week was the last one of the season for the club.

Two Eagles Named To All-Tournament

Two members of the Canyon Eagles' state basketball championship team were named to all-tournament honors following the championship games in Austin.

They were guard Jim Whinnery and center Eddie Poole. Whinnery, who scored 323 points during the season, was high scorer for the Eagles in the championship game against Lancaster with 17 points.

Poole, who had about 425 points for the season, was a standout on defense for the Eagles in the Lancaster game and added seven points to the tally.

"I don't think there was any one standout for us," said Coach Allen Simpson. "I think we would have lost the tournament if any one of the seven players we used had not been in the game. Five of those boys have played together since the seventh grade, and that makes for good teamwork."

Simpson said his only regrets were that both Whinnery and Poole are seniors and will graduate this year.

WT Coaching Clinic Set For April 3

The second annual spring coaching clinic will be held on the campus of West Texas State University on Friday and Saturday, April 3 and 4, according to a recent announcement by the Buffaloes head football coach, Joe Kerbel.

Highlights of the two day clinic will be lectures and discussions led by the special guest speakers—Ray Graves, head football coach and athletic director at the University of Florida; Emory Ballard, head football coach and athletic director at San Angelo Central High School; Ken McCullough, head coach for Breckenridge High School; and Jerry Don Logan, a defending safety for the Baltimore Colts and former outstanding player with the WTSU Buffaloes.

The guest speakers are well known in athletic circles for their coaching specialties. They will be assisted by Coach Kerbel and his entire staff who will lecture and demonstrate on special coaching techniques. Each member of the staff will concentrate on this coaching specialty.

Members of the West Texas State varsity football team, who will be in the middle of spring training, will be used by the guest speakers to demonstrate their various specialties. All sessions, except the punting drills, will be held in the Buffalo Fieldhouse with mats on the gym floor. Demonstrations at the clinic will go at full speed, conditions permitting.

A special feature of the clinic will be an invitation to view a Buffalo practice session on Friday afternoon. The first West Texas State coaching clinic was held last spring with a large attendance, and a larger crowd is expected for the clinic workshop this year.

Track Team Fifth In Floydada

Second place was the best any team member could do Saturday when the Canyon High School track team journeyed to Floydada for the Whirlwind Relays.

The team placed fifth among 11 other teams in the Class AA competition.

The mile relay team consisting of Randy Buttrill, John Low, Tommy Sanford and Wayne Brewer, came in second. The 440-yard relay team placed fourth. Runners are Buttrill, Dennis Haley, Sanford and Brewer.

In the individual events, Brewer placed second in the 100-yard dash and Joel Richardson placed second in the high jump. Tommy Sanford placed 5th in the 440-yard dash, followed in sixth place by teammate Buttrill.

The Eagles' next meet is Saturday in Hale Center, with final events scheduled for Saturday night.

In the Floydada meet, the Eagles trailed Tulsa, Floydada, Olton and Slaton.

Freshman Runners Win First

Canyon's freshman track team won first place Saturday over 39 other teams in the Springlake Invitational Track Meet.

Scott Downing, Jack Stephens, Joe Moore, David Rossi, Jerry Nickell and the members of the 440-yard relay team all contributed points to the team victory. Coach is W. M. Nickell.

Downing placed first in the 50-yard dash and second in the 75-yard dash and third in the broad jump. Stephens took a first place in the 120 low hurdles, second in the broad jump and third in the 100-yard dash. Moore took second in the 220-yard run, and David Rossi won second place in the discus throw. Jerry Nickell placed sixth in the 660-yard run.

Members of the 440-yard relay team are Downing, Neal Thrasher, Moore and Stephens. The freshmen's next meet will be April 4 in Hereford.

2 Cowgirls On State Tourney Team

Two Happy Cowgirls were named to the Class B all-state tournament team this week following the state championship games in Austin.

Alice Womack, 5-3 junior guard, and Marcella Irlbeck, 5-4 senior forward, were placed on the eight-girl Class B team by sportswriters covering the playoffs last week end.

Happy placed third in the state finals winning over Leuders in the first game and being defeated by Trent. Happy came back on court Saturday morning and downed Rock Springs, 50-37, to take the third place honors.

Firemen Called To Grass Fires

Canyon firemen answered three calls for grass fires during the past week, one of which was a false alarm.

The first call came Saturday afternoon when grass started burning two miles east of town. There was no serious damage. A false alarm was turned in Friday night from 2.5 miles north of town.

Fire Sunday afternoon caused minor damage to fence posts at the residence of Dr. J. L. Markham 2.5 miles southwest of town. Very little grass burned, according to firemen.

Easter Arrives For Greenhouse

BY RANDY RUTHERFORD
Easter is a hectic time for any retail florist, but for the guy who sells flowers to the flower shops it is even more so.

Jim Irwin, president of Irwin Greenhouses, Inc., of Canyon, well knows the situation and the more than 2,000 Easter lilies being grown by him and his crew northwest of town are being kept under almost constant surveillance.

"Easter lilies are one of the hardest holiday flowers to handle," he says, "since the timing has to be just right in order for the blooms to be perfect when they're supposed to be. What makes it even harder is that the date for Easter changes each year. You can't use a set schedule."

But hard as they may be to grow, says Irwin, his stock will be in full bloom and ready for delivery to area florist shops on time.

Lilies are only a small part of the strictly wholesale business carried on by the local greenhouse. Since opening for business last November, the concern has been producing potted chrysanthemums at the rate of about 550 per month.

"Our potted mums account for about half of our overall business," says Irwin. The rest of the business is devoted to raising other popular plants and holiday and seasonal plants.

Right now the greenhouse supplies only potted plants.

"We may someday go into cut flowers, but to do so we would have to have special benches and quite a bit more room," says Irwin.

The business is housed in five greenhouse units and an office area totaling about 26,000 square feet. Shipments of rooted cuttings are received each week from California, and the Irwin people take it from there.

Each cutting is potted, then the pot is placed on one of several benches and the heat and precipitation along that bench set for whatever best suits the plant. Watering and fertilizing is done through a special irrigation system which allows all plants on the long bench to be watered at the same time. As the plants mature, they are moved to other benches and the temperature and humidity reset.

From the time the cuttings arrive, until the flowering plant is sold to a florist takes about 13 weeks, according to Irwin.

"We are in a continuous process. The cuttings arrive and are cared for through various stages until the finished product is ready to go out the door," explains Irwin.

Holiday crops, such as lilies and hydrangeas for Easter and poinsettias for Christmas, account for about a third of the entire business done by the greenhouse.

Sales territory for Irwin Greenhouses extends from Lubbock north to Liberal, Kan., west to Springfield, Colo., south to Clovis and Carlsbad, N. M., then east to the Oklahoma line.

"Before we started our business last fall, most of the florists in the Panhandle were having their potted plants sent from as far as Oklahoma City and Denver. Having worked for 15 years in the Oklahoma City area, I knew of this situation and had kept my eye on the Panhandle for some time before I finally came to Canyon," says Irwin.

Irwin Greenhouses are the largest dealer in potted plants in the area. Only two or three smaller greenhouses are in business, and Irwin says hardly any of the retail dealers have any facilities for growing plants.

"We have been very pleased with the reception the local florists have given us in the short time we have been open. I have been pleasantly surprised."

The greenhouses are located 4.5 miles northwest of Canyon on the VFW road. Three men and two women are currently employed, and two college students work part time. The organization, in which A. W. Lair is the other principal stockholder, owns 12 acres of land.

so future expansion will provide no problem. The greenhouse is already producing mums at full capacity.

"Our immediate plans do not call for any expansion," says Irwin. "However, we started the business with the idea of expanding it as demand increased."

Irwin said when he came to Canyon to see about starting the business, he had almost decided to build on South Washington just north of Canyon.

"I had never heard of A. W. Lair until I got here. He had some land for sale, so I went out to look at it with him. He was the one who suggested this site, and I took him up on it. During the course of the negotiations, he got interested in the business and decided to go in with me."

Irwin says occasionally the Canyon attorney will come out after a shipment of cuttings has arrived and will help in the potted process.

Special equipment for the greenhouse besides the irrigation system includes blower fans and gas heaters for temperature control and water pads for humidity and temperature control. The benches on which the potted plants are placed run the length of the 131-foot-long houses. Cheese cloth and 'black cloth are used for shading in some stages of growth.

"Building a greenhouse can be a pretty expensive proposition when all the smaller necessities are provided," says Irwin. He estimates that from $3 to $4 per square foot is needed to build, operate and stock such a business.

Although large greenhouses are almost unique in this area, Irwin said he had heard of plans of some other individuals to build greenhouses for the commercial production of tomatoes.

Irwin emphasized the fact that since his greenhouse was operated on a wholesale basis they could not sell plants to individuals.

"However, we hope that anybody who would like to will drive out to look over the operation," he said.

400 Attend RG Fish Fry

Ocean catfish was served to 426 people at the 'fish fry' which was sponsored by the Canyon Assembly Order of the Rainbow for Girls Saturday evening.

The fish fry, which is one of the main money making projects of the Rainbow Girls, was held at the cafeteria of Rex Reeves Elementary School from 5:30 until 8:30 p.m. Saturday evening.

Large fillets of catfish, tartar sauce, beans, vegetable salad, cornbread, beverages, and homemade cakes were served at the annual affair which was planned by the Rainbow advisory board.

The Rainbow Girls were in charge of serving the food which was arranged by the food committee including chairmen Mrs. Faye Cannedy, Mrs. R.C. Busted and Mrs. T. E. Beard.

"It was one of the largest crowds we've had for the fish fry," commented Mrs. Jim Cabe, mother advisor of the Rainbow Girls.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Cabe, Mrs. Mary Lee Colclazer, worthy matron of the Order of the Eastern Star; Billy Bible, grand officer of the OES; and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Higgins, worshipful master of the Masonic Lodge. The preceding were hosts and hostesses for the affair.

Funds derived from the event will be used by the local Rainbow Assembly to help sponsor a delegation of 30 or 35 members who will attend the Grand Assembly in San Antonio in mid-June.

Service Added To Store Here

A mail order catalog center has been established in the Canyon Western Auto Store in Canyon, according to Bud Parker, owner.

The center will enable Canyon residents to order by mail from the 320-page catalog published by the national company.

The new service features actual prices which the customer will have to pay, including postage and delivery costs. All charges are included in the listed catalog price.

Western Auto President A.C. Swanson said the company will use existing warehouse centers throughout the United States to speed merchandise to customers.

A specially designed catalog order desk will be installed in the Canyon store. Persons wishing to order by mail may use the accommodations at the local Western Auto store, Parker said.

A door-to-door campaign will be held by the local Western Auto employees and catalogs will be given out to persons called upon. Catalogs will be mailed to residents living in rural area near Canyon.

The Ugly Man dance was held Wednesday night in the union ballroom with the Tiaras of Amarillo providing the music.

Results of the ugly man contest were not available at press time.

Harry W. Clark, industrial speaker, talked with members of Canyon civic organizations at a joint luncheon Thursday in the West Cafeteria on the West Texas State University campus. Clark is executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission and told those at the meeting the need for industrial development.

Clark Encourages Industrial Growth

Industrial development is the life blood of the United States, according to Harry W. Clark, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission.

Clark was the second speaker in a series sponsored by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. He spoke last Thursday at a joint luncheon of civic organizations.

He told the more than 100 men at the gathering industrial development in a community was necessary and would depend on the leaders in the community.

"Leaders of a community must carry the industrial load. There are appeals made for time, money and effort. Decisions must be made every moment. Persons making these decisions must be leaders and they must work to help get industrial development in their area," Clark said.

He said all industrial growth depends on selling the area.

"With 1500 industries available and more than 15,000 chambers of commerce trying to get them to locate in certain areas, you must sell. The main thing you sell is the economic geography of your area. The climate of the area will determine whether you get or do not get an industry," he continued.

Clark gave five reasons why individuals should be interested in industrial development for their own community and town. Self-preservation in the world was his first reason why individuals should take an active interest in industrial growth.

"We won World War II because we had industrial might. We had extra industrial might during the war and we knew we could depend on industry."

"In order to keep peace in the world, we must keep industry and we must have more industries."

"It is a matter of self-preservation in that an industrial plant be located in Canyon. To keep peace we must have industry," Clark said.

Industry is an intricate part of the American way of life, was his second point.

"To maintain the high economic standards of living which we enjoy in the United States, we must keep and develop industry."

"A 100 percent growth in industrial production is expected from 1950 to 1975 in the United States. By 1980, 80 percent of the people will live in 80 metropolitan areas. Canyon must be a part of urbanization and industrialization."

"So for your own economic stability and well-being it is necessary for you to take an active interest in industry," he pointed out.

Pride in the great state of Texas was Clark's third idea on the necessity of industry.

He pointed out a diversification of industry is needed in Texas. Smaller industries are needed, not larger ones.

"Small industries are needed. You don't want a large industry here, but rather a small one which will grow with the area."

Clark explained that Texas is the fourth largest state in population, but below average in per capita income for the United States.

"Texas is not keeping pace with the rest of the nation. Why? Because of lack of diversification of types of industry," he said.

His fourth reason for individuals participating in industrial development was the love of their community.

"Why not convert love and desire of your home and town into a program of proving a profit can be made here?"

"Industries are located on profit motives, so why not prove to people that a profit can be made here in Canyon?" he asked.

Clark said perhaps the purpose for existence is industrial growth and development of community. This was his final point in explaining the need and purpose of industry to persons in growing areas of the United States.

Film Series Set Tonight

Another Canyon community film series productions will show for the final time tonight in the Olympic Theatre in Canyon.

"Sundays and Cybele", a French movie produced in 1963 will have two showings tonight at 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. in the downtown theatre.

The film, ninth in the series, is a story of an amnesiac war veteran and the nurse who cares for him.

The next film series show will be April 1 and 2 in the Olympic Theatre. Harold Lloyd's "World of Comedy" is recommended for the entire family. It is an American movie and was produced in 1962.

Admission is $1 per person.

Whinnery Fine After Surgery

Jim Whinnery, one of Canyon's two all-state tournament basketball players, underwent knee surgery last week in Nebel Hospital. He was dismissed from the hospital earlier this week.

Whinnery suffered a bone chip and cartilage damage in the first game of the football season last fall. He was advised to go ahead and have the operation after football season, but the youngster said he wanted to wait until after basketball season.

His father, John Whinnery, said a bone chip was removed and cartilage repaired in the operation which occurred Thursday morning. Jim was in the hospital about five days.

Dick Cummins Presides At Club Meeting

The regular meeting of the Wagon Wheel 4-H Club was held recently at the Junior Livestock Building of Canyon with Dick Cummins, president, conducting the business meeting.

Jerry Crain led the group in the 4-H pledge and motto. Following roll call and the reading of the club minutes by the secretary, a program on method and new demonstrations was given by John Brazzil, county agent, and Mrs. David Pulley, home demonstration agent.

Sandwiches and punch were served to those present. A series of games followed the meeting. The game leaders were Judy Sykes, Judy Boehning and Mary Cummins.

Members present for the meeting were Clifford, Judy and Karen Boehning, Jerry Crain, Dick and Mary Cummins, Roger and Kathy Gist, Sherry Henry, Eddie, Mike and Sharon Henders, Rick and Rhonda Hales, Vicki Johnston, Jackie Miller, Charles, Judy, Martha and Melanie Sykes, Cindy Kuhlman, Terry Reynolds, Gayle Thompson, Cheryl Schaffer, Yvonne Dooley, and Marsha Hager.

Pineapple Cake Recipe Favorite Of Mrs. Foster

BY LORENA MILLER

Mrs. Dewey Foster, known as Kitten by her friends, shares a recipe for Pineapple cake with our readers this week.

The former Miss Katherine Read, who was born and reared in Memphis, Texas, was next to the youngest in a family of eight children. She has four brothers, L. W. and Charles who live in Lubbock; A. B. who makes his home in California; and John who resides in Roswell, New Mexico.

"I remember being a flower girl for my oldest sister's wedding," says Mrs. Foster. Her sisters are Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard and Mrs. Don Wright, who both live in Memphis, and Mrs. Jett R. Fore of Los Angeles, California.

After completing her high school education, Kitten attended West Texas State University and then became a teacher in a two-teacher school near Turkey. "I enjoyed teaching, it was such a pleasure to work with the youngsters," says Mrs. Foster as she noted that the two teachers conducted classes for children in grades one through seven.

She and Mr. Foster were married in 1925 at Memphis, Texas and have made their home in Canyon since that time. Mr. Foster, who was born at Ben Franklin near Paris, Texas, moved to Canyon in 1906 with his mother, the late Mrs. Emma Foster.

He has a brother, Mark L. Foster, now residing in Bellflower, California and his sister Mrs. E. L. Prichard, lives in Amarillo.

Mr. Foster, who retired six years ago after 42 years with the Canyon Post Office, was an honor graduate of Canyon High School. He started to work with the postal department when he was eighteen.

"He was partly responsible for getting the new Post Office building, and went all over the Panhandle looking at new buildings," says Mrs. Foster. While a postalemployee, he was a rural mail carrier for six years and was the assistant post master for 35 years.

Since retiring, he has gone into the real estate business and also serves as a Panhandle representative and salesman for Tri-State Fence Company.

"Buddy is the family gardener, and usually has a small vegetable garden in the backyard as his hobby and afternoon relaxation spot," says Mrs. Foster.

The Fosters reside at 1007 5th Avenue. Their three bedroom home, decorated with modern and early-day furnishings, is a pride of Mrs. Foster.

An active homemaker and mother, Mrs. Foster also finds time to reupholster and refinish furniture for her home. She recently completed a refinish job on their bedroom suite, which was bought when the couple were first married in 1925.

Done in an antique white which complements the old-fashioned styling, the bedroom suite is composed of the bed, with a large headboard, a bureau chest, and the divided dresser with folding side mirrors. Old fashioned lighting fixtures complement the room which is papered in a pink floral design with white.

Mr. Foster's home office has been arranged in one of the bedrooms which is accented with a picture collection of their two children, a son and daughter.

Their son, Dr. Manus R. Foster, is a physicist in the research lab of Socony Mobile Oil in Dallas. He and his wife, the former Barbara Wood of Lawrence, Kansas, live in Irving with their three children, Nord 10, Lisa 7, and Craig 3.

An honor graduate of Canyon High School, Dr. Foster attended West Texas State University before transferring to the University of Kansas in Lawrence where he received his Ph.D. degree.

Mrs. Frank L. Stallings, Jr., the former Jerri Ann Foster, also graduated from Canyon High School and attended West Texas State University and the University of Texas. Her husband, now an English professor at Arlington State Teachers College, received his degree from the University of Texas.

The Stallings make their home in Arlington. They have two children, David 11 and Diane 9.

"While my children were growing up, I was active as a scout leader, a Sunday School

MRS. DEWEY FOSTER, known as Kitten by her friends, is pictured serving a cup of coffee to go with her Pineapple Gelatin Cake. Mrs. Foster, mother of two, is an active homemaker and club-woman with a variety of pastime hobbies which she enjoys and is sharing with our readers this week along with her cake recipe.

teacher and worked with the PTA," commented Mrs. Foster. She was active in the Parent-Teacher Association for 18 years and served the group in a number of official capacities.

Mrs. Foster is currently active in the Order of the Eastern Star, where she is a former past matron of the chapter, and is president of the Lou Lester Club, which is comprised of past matrons. Her husband, a member of the Masonic Lodge, also holds membership in the Order of the Eastern Star.

She was a charter member of the Sue Hite Club and has held the club presidency twice during her membership. She is a member of the Priscilla Needle Club, the Palo Duro Mother-in-Law Club, the Canyon Garden Club, and is current president of the Merry Maids and Matrons 42 Club, and enjoys an afternoon of bridge with her friends often.

The Fosters entertain their friends with games of 88 and cards at their home on quiet evenings," it is one of our main relaxations for family fun" says Mrs. Foster. "Buddy also participates in the Canyon Garden Club which meets one night monthly and is set up for couples or individuals who are interested in gardening and flowers," she commented.

As members of the First Methodist Church of Canyon, the Fosters are active in church work including the WSCS for ladies.

The Fosters have lived in their home for six years. A corner fireplace, with stove insert, accents the spacious living room. A large gold framed mirror enhances the fireplace mantel which is decorated with a variety of what-nots which Mrs. Foster has collected for her home.

"I'm not a collector of any particular item, but I do have a few collected pieces of silver, crystal and decorative plates that I have acquired through the years as gifts from friends and relatives," comments Mrs. Foster.

Mrs. Mark Foster, a cousin of Dewey, painted several pictures for the Foster's home. They are displayed in the living room and dining room, and two depict still life portraits of cacti with blooms. One is a scenic painting of a turkey framed with a bare-branched tree and other greenery for a background.

Busy as a homemaker and club woman, Mrs. Foster has a wide range of hobbies which she enjoys including sewing, crochet, needlepoint, and cross-stitch embroidery. Among items she has made during recent years have been a selection of 25 smocked pillows, most have been given to friends and relatives; 19 neckrest pillows, "which are especially useful to the elderly and as a TV pillow" according to Mrs. Foster.

Currently she is embroidering a cross stitch bedspread, and is ready to assemble a needle point purse and finish some needlepoint chair seat covers for her daughter and daughter-in-law.

Mrs. Foster's newest hobby is refinishing and reupholstering furnishings for their home. The back porch of the home has been turned into her workshop for this project. All-around windows highlight the porch where she often spends a busy afternoon antiques a table for their home.

A utility room is located in the basement, and the family kitchen is a busy place with "two cooks". Mrs. Foster reports that her husband likes to cook up such items as turnip greens and cornbread "like his mother used to", using items from his hobby garden.

In years past, Mrs. Foster was an active babysitter for her grandchildren. Since they are living in Arlington and Irving and she doesn't get to visit them often, she now finds time to take care of her niece's baby. Her niece, Mrs. Don Reeves, and family are new arrivals in the Canyon area and are living at the Nance Hereford Ranch, east of town, where he is employed.

"The baby seems almost like another grandchild," she commented.

From her collection of unusual dessert ideas and recipes, Mrs. Foster selected the following recipe to share with our readers:

PINEAPPLE CAKE
1 box white cake mix (1 No. 2 1/2 oz. size)
1 box pineapple gelatin (or orange-pineapple flavor if desired)
2/3 cup water

2/3 cup salad oil
4 eggs
Small can of crushed pineapple, drained.
Mix flour and jello and blend well. Add water and salad oil. Mix thoroughly.
Add eggs separately beating well after addition of each egg. ("This is the secret of the cake," says Mrs. Foster.) Bake in a greased and floured tube pan at 350 degrees for approximately 45 minutes.
Let cool completely before removing from pan then glaze with the following icing on top, allowing to dribble down sides.
Glaze Frosting
2 Tbsp salad oil
1 1/2 cups confectioners sugar
1 egg white
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. lemon extract
1 Tbsp. each of lemon juice and orange juice.
Beat egg slightly, add oil, beat until fluffy. Then add sugar gradually, blend in flavorings and pour over the cake.

Lowann Sparkman Talks On India

Lowann Sparkman presented a program on India at a meeting of the World Friendship of Girls last Wednesday evening in the First Methodist Church of Canyon.

Miss Sparkman gave a report on the problems and activities of teenagers in India. She commented that "young men of India who go away to college, prefer that the women keep their dignified traditional face covering, instead of changing to attire of the western world."

Prior to the program, a group of ladies of the Methodist Church were hostess for an informal hot dog supper for the girls attending.

Cub Scouting

Pack 131

Regular pack meeting time for the Dens of Pack 131 will be held on Thursday evening, March 19, at the First Methodist Church of Canyon.

Featuring a Mardi Gras program, the meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. and a number of Cubs are listed to receive advancement awards during the evening. Newton Richardson, cub master, and Dr. J. L. Markham, assistant cub master, will preside during the presentation of awards.

Den 1 ...The meeting last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Burgdorf was opened with the Cub Promise which was repeated as the Cubs stood in a formation of the living circle.

Eight members were present at the meeting and practiced on a pantomime skit 'The Three Trees' which will be presented at the pack meeting tonight. Johnny Burgdorf will narrate the story.

The meeting was closed with the Den Yell.

Den 2 ...Ricky McCarter was proclaimed the winner in a 'nail driving contest' which was held at last Thursday's meeting in the backyard of Mrs. Bob Ratliff.

Close contenders for the nail driving title were Jim Hand and Roy Markham. The meeting was attended by nine Cubs who spent the afternoon working on woodwork achievements for the Bear badge. Eric Murrell served refreshments at the meeting which was held outdoors.

Den 3 ...Grover Cleveland Brillhart joined as a new Cub member of Den 3 at their meeting last Thursday with Mrs. Cecil Winn, den mother.

The boys discussed their Mardi Gras parade plans for the pack meeting and spent part on the meeting working on arrow point electives. Gregg Winn was elected as the new denner and the new member, Grover Brillhart, was selected as the assistant denner.

Alan Dale Beghtel served refreshments following the meeting.

Den 4 ...Mrs. Raymond Rail-lard, den mother, and eleven Cubs met at the Methodist Church last Thursday afternoon for practicing on their flag ceremony which will be used as the opening exercise at this week's pack meeting of Pack 131.

The Cubs also worked on achievements and their Citizenship Ladder at the meeting.

PACK 97

March 26th has been set as the pack meeting date for Pack 97 according to Harold Prichard, new cub master. The March pack meeting will be held at the First Baptist Church of Canyon and will include an inspection of uniforms and awards ceremonies for advancing Cubs.

A special field trip for all Cubs of Pack 97 will be held on March 28th when the Cubs, their leaders and a number of parents are to meet at the First Baptist Church at 7:15 a.m. The group will take a field trip to Amarillo Air Force Base for a tour of the SAC facilities, inspection tour of interesting points at the air base, and lunch at the Mess Hall.

Den 1 ...Mrs. Douglas Rittenberry, den mother, reports inactivity for the Cub Scouts of her den for the past several weeks due to an outbreak of the mumps at the Rittenberry home. "We will resume weekly meetings when the swollen jaws, are better," said Mrs. Rittenberry.

Den 2 ...Douglas Phillips led the opening ceremony for last Thursday's meeting of Den 2 at the home of Mrs. Dean Phillips, den mother.

Six Cubs and the den chief, Bobby Todd, were present at the meeting. Todd was leader for a round of games and the boys spent part of the meeting working on their wastebasket church appreciation project.

They completed and varnished their woven baskets during the meeting.

Richard White of Fort Worth was a houseguest of his daughter, Mrs. Dudley Moore, Jr., and family for several days last week.

He returned to Fort Worth last Friday morning.

PACK 31

Four Dens of Pack 31 cancelled their regular weekly meetings last week due to the pack meeting activities which were held Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian Church of Canyon.

Den 1 ...A. V. Davis, den chief, led a variety of indoor games at the meeting Saturday morning in the home of Mrs. Tommy Hunter, den mother. Six Cubs were present for the play day program and were served refreshments by Terry Greenhoe.

Den 3 ...Mrs. J. B. Smith, den mother, reports that seven boys of her den attended their first monthly pack meeting last Thursday evening rating a medal for their perfect attendance mark.

The boys also received their Bobcat badges at the pack meeting.

New Programs Outlined For WTSU Curriculum

Several new academic programs may be introduced into the curriculum of West Texas State University, according to Dr. Emmitt Smith, director of program development and research.

Speaking to a joint meeting of the education committees of the Canyon and Amarillo chambers of commerce last week, Dr. Smith listed the following as possible new programs:

Extension to the graduate level of courses for teachers for the mentally retarded.

The offering of bachelor degrees for nurses training and laboratory technicians.

Extension of graduate training for school administrators from 30 to 60 hours past the bachelors degree level.

Dr. Smith told the 35 people attending the luncheon in the Gold Room of the East Cafeteria surveys are being made to determine what new demand for nurses, technicians and teachers for the mentally retarded will arise with the completion of the Amarillo Medical Center. The center will include a new Baptist hospital, a psychiatric hospital and a school for the mentally retarded.

"West Texas is here to serve this part of the country," said Dr. Smith. "But in order for us to accomplish our goals, we are going to have to convince people that we are no longer just a small college. We are a university with pressing needs, and we need the support of the people of this area."

The education committees of the two chambers, he said, can help in establishing a new image.

Among those attending the luncheon were Cliff Mlinar, president, and Don Hileman, executive vice president, of the Amarillo chamber; Charles Donnell, president, and Roland Black, executive secretary, of the Canyon chamber. Chairman of the Amarillo education committee is Dr. Floyd Golden. Huelyn Laycock heads the Canyon committee.

Special guests were Frank Barrett of Hereford, president of the WT Ex-Students Association executive committee; Wayne Thomas of Hereford, vice president, and Vaughn Van-dergriff, executive secretary. Dr. James P. Cornette, WT president, presided at the meeting. In opening, he said he had faith in the founding of a regional research center on the WT campus and that the center will have more to do with the development of the region than any other single thing.

Hileman emphasized Dr. Cornette's point by saying research facilities were imperative for industrial expansion. He urged the two committees to work toward the building of the center and to make future expansion easier.

Two Canyon Girls Seek FHA Offices

The Area I convention for Future Homemakers of America chapters of this region will be held in Amarillo, March 21st, with two Canyon High School girls seeking positions for area and state offices in the organization.

Miss Gayle Rea and Nancy Hicks are nominees for two FHA offices.

Miss Doris Smith, fifth vice president of the area, will be on the convention program and Lee Ann Kelley, both of Canyon High School, will serve as the voting delegate for the local chapter.

An attendance quota of 50 percent of membership is allowed per club in the area. Canyon's delegation will include 40 members and the chapter advisor, Mrs. Clara B. Long.

They will leave Canyon on a school bus at 8 a.m. Saturday morning and are expected to arrive back at the school at 4 p.m. that afternoon according to Mrs. Long, sponsor.

Happy Boys Enter Show In Lubbock

Nine high school boys from Happy entered the Lubbock Fat Stock Show held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week in Lubbock.

Dan Rafels, Bob Robinson, Johnny Zachry, Jim McManigal, Jim Allison, Eddie Moudy, Ricky Harman, Carl Shepard and Dwight Currie showed animals in the annual event.

Results of the show were not available at press time Wednesday.

Visiting in the Lawrence Hunnicutt Home last weekend were her mother, Mrs. Hazel Swink, and Mrs. O. L. Fortner, both of Amarillo.

Mrs. Swink and Mrs. Fortner were dinner guests of the O. V. Weldert's Sunday. Mrs. Weldert is also a daughter of Mrs. Swink.

Red Roses For Sweethearts

Two West Texas State University coeds were honored last week by members of Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity. Mike Milligan, left, president of the fraternity from Dumas, presented a bouquet of roses to the chapter sweetheart, Ann Wintringham from Pacific Palisades, California.

At the same ceremony Daphne Short of Snyder, was pinned to Sonny Herring of Borger, past president of the chapter. The double ceremony was conducted in the patio of McCaslin on the WT campus.

Game Night Set Friday

A community "game night" will be staged on Friday evening, March 20th, at the all-purpose room of Canyon Elementary School.

Sponsored by the Sue Hite Club of Canyon, the traditional game night will be held for the public according to Mrs. W. E. Miller, chairman.

Admission to the party will be 50 cents per person, for participation in all types of games and refreshment of coffee, and homemade pie and cake, which the club members will serve during the evening.

Section hostesses for the game night, which begins at 7:30 p.m., will be Mrs. A. H. Prichard, special foursomes and groups; Mrs. Mitchell Jones and Mrs. R. P. Jarrett, Jr., open bridge; Mrs. Virgil Henson and Mrs. Oscar Hinger, open 42 games; and Mrs. W. F. Haggard for other games including canasta, 88, parcheesi, and whatever you like to play.

Proceeds from the traditional project will be used to support activities of the Girl Scouts of Canyon and the Randall County Library, and the public is invited.

Miss Taylor Ties First In WT Show

Synda Taylor, sophomore student at West Texas State University tied for first place in the annual WTSU talent show sponsored by Chi Omega social sorority.

Hootenanny was the theme of the show this year which featured eight different acts.

Miss Taylor, Delta Zeta social sorority pledge, tied for first with Ron Day and Eric Madsen, both from Amarillo. Both acts received $20 apiece for first place.

Third place winners were Gerald Grant, Terry Milligan,

Joe Ed Campbell and Fred Carter. The act was a dixieland band.

Nancy Davis, Canyon High School senior, placed fourth in the competition and was awarded $5.

Others performing for the more than 200 persons attending the contests were Dave Sherrod; The Tenors, consisting of Steve Hilton, Mark Olson, Dale Westfall, Don Roddy, and Ricky Widick; and a duet of Joe Ed Campbell and Dave Sherrod.

Terry Lingkeit and Shirley Neel made up the final act which performed Wednesday night.

Judges for the two-hour show were Herman Demus, Dr. Emilio Cabellero, Mrs. Ples Harper and Mrs. H. R. Fulton, Jr.

Debate Team Meets Tulia In Practice

Happy High School debate team held a practice debate with the Tulia High School team recently in Happy.

Cherie Holland and Sara Sims of Happy debated Sid Hooper and Mike Pollard from Tulia on "Resolve that social security benefits should be extended to include complete medical care."

Both teams will meet again in regular interscholastic league competition.

DOES GETTING UP NIGHTS MAKE YOU FEEL OLD?
After 35, common kidney or bladder irritations often occur and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent passages both day and night. Secondly, you may lose sleep and suffer from headaches, backache and feel old, tired, depressed. In such irritation, CYSTEX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in strong, acid urine and by analgesic pain relief. Get CYSTEX at drugists. Feel better fast.

By Janie King

V.I.P.
There are some Very Interesting People in Happy High School—and this week, we present you Miss Janie McManigal, who is fourteen years old and a freshman this year. Janie was born in Canyon on March 9 and has lived in Happy all of her fourteen years. She is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morlan McManigal; she has an older brother, Jim, and a younger sister, Susan.

This little bundle of bubbly personality and energy and vigor I wish I had, stands 5 ft. and 3 inches and has brown hair and brown eyes, and weighs 123 pounds. Her favorite colors are blue and green and is quite a fiend about shrimp and apricots. When watching television, she'll turn to the "Outer Limits" if it is on, and her favorite actor is Toni Bill. I can't believe it, seeing her bustling around getting so much done, but she lists

"hard work and thinking" as some dislikes of hers, with her pet peeve being Big Jim and little Susie (her brother and sister).

Janie is quite active at Happy High School: she plays basketball, belongs to F. H. A., is an alternate cheerleader, is class treasurer. She is a member of the First Baptist Church and also of G.A.'s.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Greenfield and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Selvidge and daughter, and Mr. Cecil Greenfield had supper with C. J. and Camilla Greenfield on Sunday night, March 8.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. King from Florence, Texas visited Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller and other friends last week.

C. J. Greenfield and Jerry Dustman went golfing at Canyon Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnson and family have moved to Huntsville, Arkansas.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Quentin Gill is out of the hospital.

The Tuesday Bridge Club met March 10 at the home of La Nelle Todd. Those present were Louise White, Vivian Woods, Ruth Maynard, Frances Hodges, Myra Nell Culp, Mildred Zachry, Mary Ann Magness, and the hostess.

Charlene and Jerry Dustman entertained Saturday night with supper and '42. Those present were Gracene and James Parker, and Ken and Barbara Danner.

Those having dinner in the home of Mrs. Bertie Culp Sunday were Mrs. Viola Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Culp, Gary and Wickey, Mrs. Charles Kelley and Karen, and Mrs. Clyde Gillespie from Amarillo.

Janie King and girls, Pam and Vondi, have been visiting the past week in Spur with her mother, Madge Carlisle, and her father, Dr. Bob Alexander.

More about the F.F.A. Banquet which was held Monday, March 9 in the school cafeteria. D. L. Allison and Vernon Harman were named Honorary Chapter Farmers and presented plaques. Certificates of appreciation were presented to Mrs. D. L. Allison, Mrs. Lee Moore, Mr. Sam Bryan, and Harman-Toles Elevators. DeKalb award was given to John McNeil, highest Chapter Scholastic award to Ricky Harman and freshmen award to Bob Robinson, Star Green Hand was presented to Randy Johnson, Star Chapter Farmer to Jim Allison, Livestock award to Eddie Moudy, Crop Farmer to Dan Rahls, and Farm Mechanics to Ronnie Via. Eddie Moudy and Jim McManigal are Long Star Farmer candidates.

Martha Toles is the F.F.A. sweetheart and Irita Bowe her attendant. Martha was presented a bouquet of red roses and an F.F.A. Sweetheart jacket. Marvin Caruthers and Gene McKinney gave several guitar and drums selections, and a famous television star made her appearance which was a surprise to everyone—Phyllis Diller (it was really Mr. Carroll Killingsworth).

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Taylor visited last week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Denney, of Andrews, Texas.

Those attending the Fat Stock Show at Lubbock and showing livestock this week are Jim McManigal, Jim Allison, Wickey Culp, Bob Robinson, Dan Rahls, Rickey Harman, Dwight Currie, Debra Currie, and Johnny Zachry, and Carl Shepard.

Coach Dean King had supper with the Everett Culps last Wednesday night.

The honor roll for the fourth six week is as follows: In high school, making all A's was sophomore, Dan Rahls. Having an A average were seniors, Rickey Harman and Martha Toles; juniors, Angela Airhart, Jerry Don Danner, Sharon Johnson, Jim McManigal, Sara Sims, Wayne Stevens, and Leonida Thornton; sophomores, Gary Culp, Larry Stevens, Barbara Wesley, and Ed Wright; and freshmen, Mike McCauley and Bill Vernon.

In Happy Junior High School, making all A's were eighth graders, Elizabeth Payne and Martha Sabedra; and seventh grader, Dudley McNeil.

The Everett Culps and the Dean Kings took Wickey Culp to Lubbock Saturday night and had supper at the Sirloning. Margaret Womble and Anne McManigal, teachers in the Springlake School system, were in Canyon Saturday attending the Girls' Basketball Regional games.

Boys from the Varsity Track Team went to the Floydada Track Meet last Saturday and they were Jim McManigal, James Haley, Morris Rogers, Richard O'Dell, and Dan Rahls. They were accompanied by Coach Dean King.

The seventh and eighth graders went to the Track meet at Springlake Saturday, where Wickey Culp placed third in the 50-yard dash. The Junior High boys were accompanied by "Coach" Everett Culp.

On Saturday, March 21, the Varsity journeys to Hale Center, while the seventh grade goes to Springlake.

Lucy and Boyd White, of Pringle, stopped by to see Yvonne and L. G. Airhart on their way to the game at Austin last weekend.

The Happy Jaycee-ettes held an organizational meeting Tuesday night, March 10, under the sponsorship of the Canyon Jaycee-ettes. Twenty from Happy attended and Mrs. Tom Henry was elected temporary chairman. The Jaycee-ettes of Happy plan to meet on every second and fourth Tuesday nights.

A big Welcome Home Committee, composed of just about everyone in town, was on hand at Happy High School, Sunday afternoon at 5:30 to greet the Happy Cowgirls as the big chartered bus rolled "happily" along. Several met the bus a few miles outside of town and they, along with the boys with the Victory Bell blazed a trail just barely ahead of the big bus. Excitement was everywhere as parents and friends showed the girls how proud we are of them and how glad to see them all were. Inside, cake and punch and coffee were served, as others who went to Austin began to filter in and tell of their trip.

Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, the Woman's Study Club had a Style

Show and the Annual Guest Day Tea at the Methodist Church.

Last Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henry went to the Jr. Chamber of Commerce Banquet at Dumas, Texas. Guest speaker was Lieutenant Governor, Preston Smith.

Attending the Canyon Jr. Chamber of Commerce Banquet Saturday night were 12 couples from Happy (and incidentally it was one of the largest delegations there): Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Don Magness, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. Lewell Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Carol Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Weatherly. It was a western installation banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Bod Dowd, Barbara, and Beverly visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Frazier, of Waco, on their trip to Austin last weekend.

Mary Neal Henry and Gladys Haley drove to Plainview for some shopping Monday.

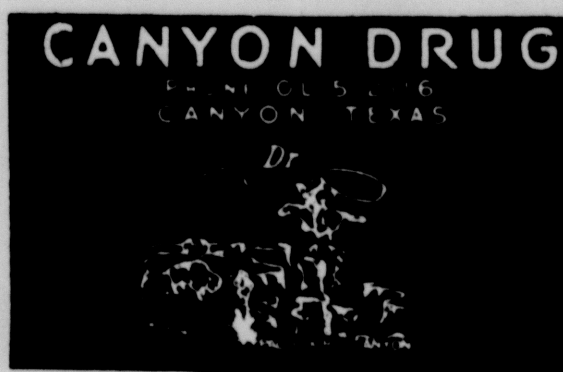

On Tuesday, March 24, the Happy Jaycee-ettes will meet at the school cafeteria to adopt the Constitution and By-Laws and also to elect officers. All are urged to attend this important meeting.

Hostesses for a Housewarming for Mrs. Waurene Cope last week, were Dolores Weatherly, Sherry Walker, Mrs. J. L. Waters, Anna Mae McManigal, and Mary Beth Stubblefield. Cookies, punch and coffee were served to Linda McDonald, Gay Nell Bonds, Lucille Robinson, of Canyon, La Nelle Andrews, Neta Todd, Doll Edmonds, Mrs. Stone Cope, and from Tulsa were Mrs. Lorene Walker, Mrs. Annie Norris, Mrs. George Boleman, and Jonelle Boleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Taylor honored their daughter Lanelle Todd on her birthday March 8 with a luncheon in their home. Helping La Nelle celebrate in addition to her parents, Nig and Dee, were her son Kyle, her husband Lonnie, her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Maynard, Mark, Don, and Glen. Having Sunday dinner with the Dee Taylors were Rev. and Mrs. Travis La Duke, Sheryl and Shane.

CANYON BUSINESS REVIEW

BUYER'S GUIDE

A new business and an excellent service has been established in Canyon for the convenience of local businesses and homeowners.

American Window Cleaners and Janitor Service, owned and operated by Jim King, began operation nine months ago in Canyon and surrounding towns, and has continually provided local merchants with top quality service.

With no job too small or too large for King and his helpers, the men work daily to keep business buildings and homes clean and spotless.

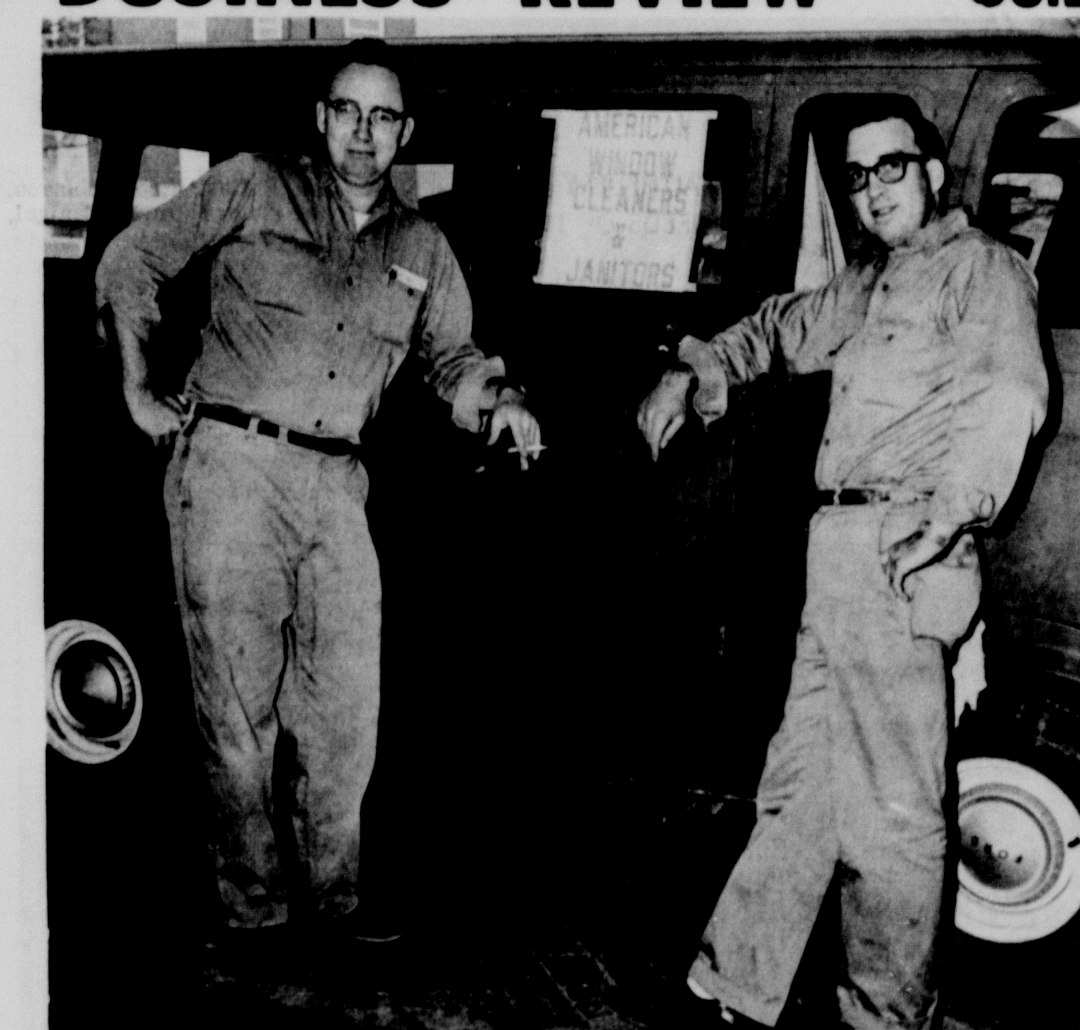

American Window Cleaners was established nine months ago when King and his wife, Nellie, moved to Canyon from Logansport, Indiana.

King was born in Logansport in 1928 and graduated from high school there in 1944. He served in the army for three years in Germany and went back to his hometown to work in the Post Office.

He went into the painting contracting business and remained there until 1963.

He and his wife were married in 1948 and have five children, Penny, 15, Vivian, 14, Sue Anna, 11, Jimmy, Jr., 10 and Donna, 3.

George Becker is an active worker in the business. Becker has been with King for more than a month, both working to give the best service available to their customers.

The firm gives free estimates for their jobs and the men are eager to help you with any cleaning need. They will talk with you about your needs and help you decide the size job you have.

Covering Canyon, Tulsa, Happy, Hereford, and Dimmitt American Window Cleaners and Janitor Service does work for firms throughout the Golden Spread area. They offer top quality service and dependable work.

If you need your office or home windows cleaned, floors cleaned or office kept in continuous good condition, call OL 5-4701 or drop by at 710 13th Street and ask Jim King for a free estimate on your building. Remember: No job is too large or too small for American Window Cleaners and Janitor Service.
